Congratulations Are in Order

An Editorial

Congratulations are in order for the steps being taken to relieve the parking problem in the crossroads area of Orinda.

For a while it looked as though the problem would remain a perennial one, with a lot of talk about it, but no constructive action.

STAN ALLEN started the ball rolling when he called a meeting of property owners and tenants in April. More property owners appeared at this meeting than had ever gathered together at one time to discuss a mutual problem.

From this meeting grew a volunteer committee to study ways and means of solving the problem. Tom Horton is chairman. Subsequent meetings of this committee, with county representatives, Orinda's Parking Authority commissioners and interested merchants have resulted in action, at last.

Letters are being mailed this week to four professional firms requesting an estimate on the cost of a survey to determine what can be done with Orinda's parking problem. Funds from the Parking Authority will be used to finance such an estimate.

IN ADDITION a thought provoking suggestion was submitted to the chamber of George Dodge, who outlined both a possible solution to the problem and a way it could be financed.

Congratulations are in order, too, for Paul Vashell, whose plan for a bus turn-off between the on and off ramps of the freeway has been approved by the State Division of Highways.

Is Your Teenager Still Jobhunting? Try This

If you have a restless teen-ager around the house who has not yet lined up work for the summer, maybe the Sun can help.

Once again, as a community service, the Sun is offering free work wanted classified ads to teen-agers.

This program was started several years ago, and has helped hundreds of youngsters to find summer jobs.

ANY TEEN-AGER is eligible. All you have to do is come to a Sun office at 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek or 1001 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, and place your ad.

Ads must be placed in person by teen-agers by Friday at 3 p.m. in order to appear the following week in the Sun Shopping News, Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun, Walnut Creek Sun and Pleasant Hill Sun.

EACH AD will be limited to 10 words and will run for two weeks.

Only one series of ads will be accepted from any youngster and ads cannot be changed during the insertion time.

The ads must contain the youngster's name and telephone number as well as the kind of work which he or she is seeking.

Many youngsters have found, in the past, that they gained full summer employment through this program offered by the Sun.

Jury Suggests Local Control Welfare Program

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury has suggested the County Taxpayers' Association make a survey of the cost to the taxpayers if the county withdrew from the Federal and State plans for Social Welfare and ANC assistance and initiated a Contra Costa County plan with a complete local control.

In a letter to L. E. Carbert, president of the association, Douglas Beasley, grand jury foreman, stated the jury feels it is quite possible that a return to county control of the welfare programs to local authorities would be beneficial, both socially and financially for all concerned.

Beasley suggested the survey should include: Consideration of all present and proposed new regulations. Present costs and estimated costs of county plan, indicating expected increase in tax rate for the first and subsequent years.

Social effects such as in or out migration of welfare families to or from the county; beneficial or harmful effect to the county and/or the welfare families.

First Summer Heat Blasts Hit Orinda

Green hair will soon be THE LOOK as local residents spend more and more time in the chlorinated pool water.

Summertime has begun a crash program throughout the state.

Temperatures have left the forties. The hundreds are becoming the mode.

Acalanes Budget Up 8%; Tax Rate to Remain Same

Acalanes Union High School trustees Monday night approved a tentative budget of $3.2 million dollars.

Assistant superintendent for business Ross Reagan said that although the proposed budget represents an eight per cent increase over the estimate for the current year, the tax rate is expected to remain the same.

TOTAL TAX rate for the Acalanes High School District is currently $2.175 per $100 assessed valuation.

The budget will be submitted to the county superintendent of schools for review and approval after which a public budget hearing will be held the first week in August.

Reagan said that recent adjustment in assessed valuation of property in Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda are conservatively expected to increase the total assessed valuation of the high school district by $12 million.

FINAL FIGURES will not be known until later in the year, but if the increase is greater than anticipated the tax rate will go down proportionately.

The possibility of the district receiving an increase in federal funds allotted under proposed legislation was also discussed but it was explained that these monies would be allocated too late to be reflected in current tax rates.

Operating expenditures for the year will increase primarily because of a nine per cent increase in student enrollment, said superintendent Neil Parsons.

HE SAID that 75 per cent of the new budget is made up of direct cost of instruction-teachers' salaries, counseling, textbooks and classroom instructional supplies.

The remaining 25 per cent is divided among the cost of insurance, school bus transportation, building maintenance and operation, administration and auxiliary services, said Parsons.

Construction expenditures during the next year of $1.4 million will include the first unit of the fifth high school on Moraga Road and the expansion of Del Valle High School to accommodate four full classes of students.

"The next year is going to be a tight one financially," Reagan said, "and we will be lucky if we can live within our income, but we're going to try very hard to do so. The following year things should be somewhat easier."

Chamber to 'Watch Dog' Service District Budgets

The George Dodge Special Plan for Parking in Orinda was revealed to members of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at the chamber meeting in the Casa Orinda at noon.

In a letter read to the chamber by Clarence Betz, secretary, Dodge outlined a possible solution to the crossroads parking problem. He suggested getting the merchants to sign an agreement that each would pay $5 per month per employee for an employee's parking stall.

IT HAS been determined that there are 300 employees in the crossroads area who must park their cars somewhere all day. If each employer paid $5 per employee, the amount collected would be $1500 a month, or $18,000 a year.

This sum, Dodge explained, could be used for construction of parking lots on top of the building that houses the Orinda Pharmacy, Sprouse-Reitz, Orinda Hardware and the Morinda Corporation offices.

Dodge said he believed there were other buildings in the area that were also constructed to take an additional one or two stories. The $18,000 a year would represent a return of eight per cent on $225,000, which he believed would be enough money to build this type of lot.

LAST MONTH at a special meeting of the chamber parking committee with Mark Kermit, county traffic engineer and John Ogden of Orinda's Parking Authority, it was agreed that the first step towards solving the parking problem was to have a survey made by professionals.

They also agreed to use some of the funds raised by the parking authority for this purpose. Kermit suggested four firms. They are D. Jackson Faustman of Sacramento, Wilbur Smith and Associates of San Francisco, De Leuw Cather and Company of San Francisco, Tudor Associates of San Francisco and Albert Raeburn and Associates.

Ken Courtright also suggested the possibility that the Stanford Research Institute students might be able to do the job, for considerably less than the other firms. Letters will be sent to the firms this week, and Clarence Betz will check with Stanford.

BETZ REPORTED that the survey party on Camino Pablo was surveying the loop where the bus turn-off will be constructed.

Area Suffers in First Heat Wave; High Temp Is 108

If the weather seems unusually warm, it has been and is!

The recordings for Wednesday, during which records were set and re-set, are as follows for Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda.

In Walnut Creek the high was 107, with a low of 62.

Lafayete hit a high of 108 and dropped to a low of 65.

Orindans sweltered in 105 degrees and were temporarily cooled by a low of 56.

A Walnut Creek Junior League baseball game was called off Wednesday evening because of the hot weather.

Gas Prices Down To 24.9 as 'War' In Bay Continues

The Bay Area "gas war" which seemed to be over three weeks ago is back again—and it looks as if hard-pressed station owners are going to put up with it.

The "war" began almost four months ago.

Prices dropped to a low of 19.9 cents at some major stations during the early months.

Later prices leveled off at 22.9 for regular and 25.9 for ethyl.

Three weeks ago Standard grabbed the initiative and ordered its stations to raise prices to 29.9 for regular and 33.9 for ethyl.

All stations quickly followed Standard's example.

Less than a week later, however, prices started dropping again—slowly, but surely.

This week most major outlets are selling regular for 24.9 and ethyl at 27.9.

Independents are at a low of 22.9 or 23.9 for regular.

Phillip Hunter Graduates with B.A.

Phillip L. Hunter, 20 Sunrise Hill, received a bachelor of arts degree at the 104th commencement exercises of the University of the Pacific June 11.

The degree recipient was among the first graduates since the class of 1910 to receive diplomas from the University of the Pacific.

Grand Jury Committee Sees Difficult Problems

The Law Enforcement Committee of the 1960-61 Grand Jury today recommended that:

1. Manpower needs of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department should be studied by a qualified consultant to correlate needs with population trends, level of services to be provided, and the potential incorporation or annexation of unincorporated areas.

2. The sheriff should be appointed, not elected.

3. The judicial districts (including the Walnut Creek Municipal Court (should be consolidated to improve administration and to effect substantial savings in operating costs.

JAMES H. BROOKS, chairman of the law enforcement committee, noted that: "Despite the current creditable performance and recent progress of law enforcement agencies in this county, the committee recognized that deficiencies do exist, and that public demands for new and improved services can be expected."

The grand jury committee also recommended that the cost of increased law enforcement services for local areas should be borne by the recipients and not by the taxpayers at large.

"To do otherwise," says the report, "obscures the true cost of the services rendered, and encourages continuing requests from small groups for ill-advised expenditures.

"IF SPECIAL police services are needed and wanted by the people in specific localized areas, we recommend these be obtained by: (1) incorporation; or (2) annexation to a municipality, or (3) formation of a special service district."

Concerning an outside study of the sheriff's office the report said:

As of May 8 the sheriff has requested the board of supervisors to add 46 men to his present staff of 166.

This committee concurs that some increase in personnel of the sheriff's department appears warranted — provided there is no marked decrease in the geographic area to be served.

The probability is real that certain fast growing areas and communities with special needs will incorporate, annex to existing cities, or form police service districts.

SUCH ACTION can negate the need of additional personnel in the sheriff's department—and it might even make possible a reduction in existing personnel.

Efficiency of government activities is traditionally controversial. Manpower use in the sheriff's department seems relatively effective. But this should be confirmed or denied by more than our mere observations.

This committee believes that a study by unbiased professional consultants can be highly beneficial to the county in determining the needs of this department.

The committee recommends that such a study be made.

Regarding an appointive rather than an elective sheriff, the report said:

Every county in California elects a sheriff for a four-year term. Should a sheriff be elected or appointed? This committee recommends appointment for these reasons:

Election campaigns are expensive. And the source of campaign funds can obligate a candidate. How will obligations—real or implied—be satisfied

WE ARE UNCERTAIN, but we believe the potential of influence on conduct is too great to be ignored.

Police chiefs are traditionally appointed. Competency and integrity of local police appointees appear high.

We believe the appointment of a sheriff can be equally satisfactory, that greater continuity and stability in law enforcement will result, and that potential obligations from election campaigns will be removed.

The committee recommended also that as long as the office remains elective, then the qualifications for the office should be upgraded.

Regarding the unification of our judicial districts the report says:

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR J. P. McBrien, recently submitted to the board of supervisors a proposal for the consolidation of our existing judicial districts.

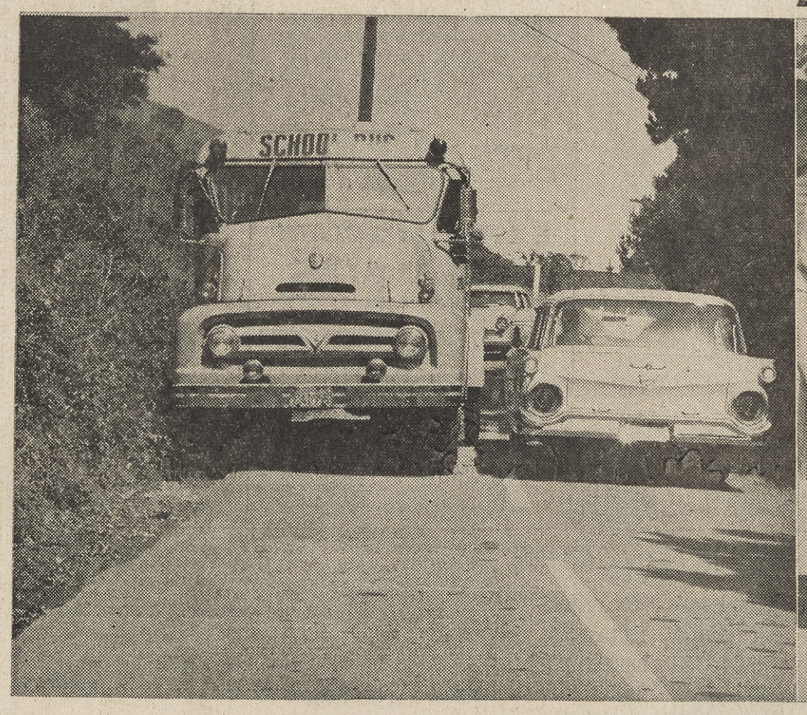
The proposal provides that the existing four municipal and 13 justice courts be unified into one municipal court district with departments located where they are needed.

This is the third proposal in the past 10 years for some form of court consolidation. Our board of supervisors rejected the proposals of 1951 and 1955.

This committee endorses Mr. McBrien's proposal and we recommend that it be approved by the board of supervisors.

DESPITE THE MERITS of a single municipal court district this proposal will be rejected unless citizens support its adoption. The opponents of court consolidation may not be strong numerically, but they are active and united.

Drivers Face Many Hazards on Tortuous El Toyonal



THIS NIGHTMARE must be faced daily by the driver of the school bus that travels El Toyonal. Even though the bus is specially designed on a smaller scale than most school buses, there is not room for bus and car to pass. Sun photos by Erwin Mattson.

SCARS ON this pole are mute reminders of the scars that many cars and some drivers bear after an unfortunate encounter. Lack of caution is not always the cause of cars hitting this tree. Given a choice of hitting another car, school bus, or youngsters, drivers prefer the tree. Youngsters remembering some of the accidents are Meredith Brody, John Meyer and Christine Svensson.

WHOSE MOVE? This is just one sample of many spots on El Toyonal where drivers have a choice of pole or ditch, or maybe both when meeting another car. If there happens to be children walking at the side of the road, everything must stop, 'til, like in checkers, someone figures out a "play."

The Sociables

By MARIE MONAHAN

"What a joint!" "What a heavenly spot!" What a GORGEOUS house" were just some of the comments culled by the handsome hilltop house that belongs to the Robert Fields of Via Floreado.

The Klemmendson-designed contemporary, spacious and elegant, sits on a plateau commanding a dramatic view of the hills of Orinda (most of it still unpopulated by houses!) & such was the scene of Lombardy's Late Watch, their oriental-themed cocktail party held last Saturday evening.

OUT FRONT for greetings & tickets . . . Jean Downs bubbling forth about Europe . . . Vivian Spacich, white spangles outlining the print of her blue silk . . . & Bea Cave tres chic, wearing a black silk organza coat w/bouffant sleeves over a black & white silk print. Bea & Reece, who move to Sac soon on an IBM transfer, entertained later w/dinner for Lombardy's chairman Ruth Fields & her doctor husband Phil. Ruth shouldering mink over a lace-topped sheath . . . Other guests were from Piedmont & Atherton.

Up the long walk flanking the house, then suddenly the Big Scene of the beautiful circular pool, gay blue, green and Siamese pink lanterns bobbing in the breezes . . . A dramatic 3-D view of Orinda from the back; the terraces, patio, plantings combined to make a choice House & Garden look.

FROM THE TERRACE . . . Joan Kendall, deeply-tanned . . . Sue Goldsmith solo (her Navy husband Allen in Texas), she shouldering a long shocking pink stole . . . A profusion of mink wraps on the ladies to ward off the evening chill; lots of plaid linen & madras sportscoats on the men . . .

DECORATION kudos for Chrmn. Jeanne Grey who, just back from a trip to So. America w/Alan, plunged right in to line up the lanterns, the flame-red Torii Gate which seemed to rightfully belong to the spot where it stood, & the antique Ricksha which most guests inspected thoroughly. Clever Jean's artful touches also copped high honor for Lombardy at the Easter Fair w/oriental-themed table decor for a children's party.

AH, SO . . . A glimpse of the Bob Pridemores, Mildred's coiffure an extreme bouffant . . . Jerry Anger selling tickets while Maurice made w/the music at Petar's.

A WHITE BOUCLE long-sleeved scoop neck sweater over a white organza skirt on Caroline Hecathorn . . . Fond farewells from her as she leaves for Tahoe soon where summer plans incl. a visit from her Girl Scout Troop.

NEW MEMBER Nan McEligot introducing her parisian mama . . . Sally Kersch balancing a tray of hot canapes, the culinary duties of Cay Snover & Fran Connolly working in the huge picture-windowed kitchen . . . Tom & Fran going on to dinner later w/the Colin Campbells.

THE HUMOR of the directional "Mama-San" & "Papa-San" signs . . . Treasurer Marge Montgomery hibernating in the laundry room where she was concentrating on a count of the cash . . . Lombardy Chairman Ruth McMacIntyre w/Hugh making it a foursome w/artist Doris Fraser & her husband Jack, also just home from Europe.

THE PRETTY blonde hostess Peggy, in a lime-yellow sheath, introducing her mother-in-law, Hazel Field . . . Peg's mother Allie Rasmussen in a striped pink bouffant-sleeved organza . . .

THE TROPICALS (Craig Crawshaw, Andy Calhoun & Tim Philobiosian), the entertainment treat of the evening; the trio superlative in calypso & folk songs, sporting Hopi coats w/their guitars & banjo, & answering a request for "Worryin' Man" . . . & the usual Kingston Trio hits.

Mothers Shirley Crawshaw, Jane Calhoun their sons' ardent supporters . . . Rita Frost . . . Hal & Vi Caldwell . . . The Ernie Starkmans w/the Bill Leonards . . . Norm & Mickey Miller . . . George & June Merriam rounding up their dinner guests, the Dan Carters, Bud Kochers, Al McCanns, Stuart Loves & Dr. and Mrs. William Hanford.

MORE MORE . . . Ellen & Jerry Cook . . . Cec Cantrill, Jim Seaman & Gene Estes giving the Men's Bar look to the little poolhouse where a brazier fire burned . . . Verla & Don Krotz in a gay gabby group . . . Matt & Maudie Hammond pulling off in a white convertible, tops down, for dinner at Petar's . . . TENNISH & time to chalk up another Lombardy success!

Orinda is loaded w/interesting houses, the old as well as the new, & during the Women's Guild (Community Church) recent "POTPOURRI in June" daytime party, many of the guests dessert-lunching at a pair of the houses, dropped in on some of the others for a peekaboo house tour.

TWO SUCH homes of special individuality were the William Penn Mott's Hacienda as well as the enchanting Fairy Tale cottage of the Norman Parkers . . . We tripped down the steps to Ruth Mott's for an appeteaser just as the sun broke through the gloomy overcast . . . Tomato juice dips & talk here w/Dorothy Dunn, Hilga Sorem, Elsie Harmon . . . President Nancy Davison making her rounds & heading downhill for the walk to the Parker garden.

The Mott home full of comfortable charm. Lots of adobe, old brick in this Spanish-flavored house built 26 years ago . . . Some of the touches—a gaily-painted oxcart Teawagon, a little Spanish courtyard where hung an oxyoke, bull horns, where stood a carved wooden siesta bench, a natural setting for the clothesline art work by Orinda artists . . .

WE FOLLOWED the trail, like Hansel & Gretel down the breadcrumb path, to the charming house on Rose Lane that we know & love well . . . Skilled carpenters are just putting the finishing touches on a balconied studio house here, boasting stained glass windows, shutters w/heart-shaped cut-outs & a wavy shingle roof to exactly match that of the older home designed by Delight de-Laveaga . . . Former owner, Dottie Rahmeyer among the guests . . . Fran Yedidia in the lovely garden setting having her salads w/Fran Smith & her little lass Melanie. They're nearby neighbors.

ARRIVING FROM early lunch at Edith Breed's, tall Jean Dobey w/Jan Reddin & Winnie Danska curious to see the storybook house they'd heard so much about over dessert on the church patio . . . Oh's & Ah's from a constant procession of guests inspecting the unique interior . . . Helen Gilmore w/a string of friends in tow . . .

A VERY VOGUISH duo was Emily Desmond in tangerine from tip to toe & Joan Garbarino garbed likewise in gorgeous cherry red . . . Helen Drews, Elva Rust, Jane Brobeck, Emma Usinger, Kay Gordon more in the lovely garden setting. Jo Crawford telling of summer plans for Berk. Tuol. Camp . . . Newcomer Mary Green bearing tell-tale smudges of stain from the studio railing. WET PAINT! Catherine Mordy arriving to House-Sit so the hostess could hear the Story Of The Windows which from all reports, was the perfect conclusion to the benefit party.

Three Exchange Students Speak To Rotarians

Three foreign exchange students spoke to the Orinda Rotary Club Tuesday, according to Ralph Hall, program director.

Ann Blow of Melbourne and Abbas Haghighat of Teheran expressed their appreciation of the American Field Service and the Rotary.

DURING the year, Ann stayed with Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Kimball of Orinda. Abbas stayed with Mr. and Mrs. John Ogden, also of Orinda.

The third AFS student who spoke to the Rotary was Jan Miller, who spent last summer in Denmark. She plans to make AFS her hobby.

Ann and Abbas will leave this area June 23 for a cross-country bus trip.

After arriving in New York, they will continue on to England. Abbas will study at Cambridge and Ann will stay with an aunt.

AFS director is Mrs. T. F. Mika.

NEXT WEEK, the Rotarians will meet and hear the biographies of Dave Burns, Safeway manager; Bill Brannon, Central Valley Bank manager; Cliff Dierdoff, California and Pacific Title Company manager.

Last Thursday the Rotarians of Orinda and Lafayette played softball at Acalanes with the Orinda team winning 18 to 5 over Lafayette.

New Name Adopted For New Road

Gateway Boulevard is the recently adopted name for the proposed road between State Highway Route 75 near Orinda and State Highway Route 235, near Moraga.

The county board of supervisors adopted the name as requested by the state.

Road signing at the interchange near Orinda will bear this adopted name.

Crowd Asks Moraga Board 'Why A Superintendent?'

A restless crowd gathered at the Old Moraga School Monday night to hear the Moraga school board explain why it hired a superintendent.

After considerable background on the issue was told by Don Falconer, chairman of the board, Charles Wright, one of the petitioners who requested more facts on the district superintendent post, asked for "time to ask questions."

He was then followed by another petitioner with a list of ten questions, to be delivered consecutively to the board.

The entire proceeding regarding the superintendent was tape-recorded.

THE BOARD, which knew the petitioners were coming with questions, comments, etc., answered the questions, although it was evident that some petitioners were not quite satisfied.

During the course of these proceedings, a gentleman from the back wall stated: "Hiring the superintendent was ex post facto May 20."

Interpreted, this meant the school district legally hired a superintendent May 20 when candidates for the superintendent post were interviewed and one selected.

Thus the district was liable to the newly named superintendent, William Knight, principal at Vallecito School, to the sum of $11,000.

THIS STRIKING note was the turning point of the petitioners' questions.

The questioning, or "grilling," as one spectator called it, dissipated.

The petitioners then explained to the board:

"We are dissatisfied with the way the superintendent issue was decided." "Better communication between the board and the district residents was necessary."

"We are not criticizing the board, but the action taken. It happened before we were aware of it."

Approximately 150 people attended the meeting; 333 people had previously signed the petition.

ACCORDING to Aden Wilson, a former board member, the anticipation of need for a superintendent was present two or three years ago; it was not a sudden thing this spring.

Falconer enumerated the reasons a superintendent was hired: "The district is growing; approximately 40 per cent of the students are on double sessions now.

"We are building a second school to be open in the fall. We are anticipating the purchase of a third school site in the Ivy Drive area.

"The district needed a third administrative person for the coming year; the question was who, not whether, he said.

THUS THE superintendent post was created in lieu of a business manager or part-time superintendent, etc.

A full-time principal would be needed at each school, with anticipated enrollment at each of 300, according to Falconer. There are 405 total youngsters in the district currently.

A full-time superintendent was considered necessary in light of this. This man would also be responsible for the school planning, teacher evaluating, advising the board in addition to the routine duties of a superintendent, stated Falconer.

IN RESPONSE to questions poised by members of the audience, Falconer said that all board meetings, except for some executive sessions where personnel are discussed, are open to the public; minutes of all meetings are kept in the school office and notice of meetings is posted in conspicuous places.

Interested persons can easily read from the minutes the action the board takes, if they are unable to attend.

Agendas are sent to all those who request them.

Falconer stated the superintendent action began March 27.

Wright said, "Communication has been good except in the superintendent issue. We do not wish to disrupt the board, but to organize the confusion."

REX COLLINS Jr., board member, told the audience at the conclusion of the lengthy discussion about the superintendent, "The schools are for children. For best education a superintendent was considered to be necessary.

"We all want superior schools. We made the best, and we feel the right, judgment we could," he concluded.

Leonard Morgenstern, board member, added, "We felt the superintendent was in the best interests of the community. Everybody doesn't have to agree with us.

"We do have the community interest and support, and we don't have to consult the community on every step we take."

Dr. Frank Bradford, county director of administrative services, who served on the superintendent screening committee, told the gathering, "This district qualifies for a superintendent.

Where's The Fire

The following alarms were responded to by the Orinda Fire Department during the past week:

The fire department warned the potential fire situation is critical because of the high temperatures and low humidity.

Lions Plan Installation

Members of the Orinda Lions Club met Wednesday at the Casa Orinda at 7:30 p.m. Lieutenant Colonel Dave Coleman, U.S. Air Force Reserves, was the guest speaker.

His topic was "A Place to Send Your Son." Tom State, newest member, was inducted.

Orinda Lions will meet June 24 at Kellogg's in Walnut Creek for annual installation of officers and Ladies' Night. Social hour will be at 7 p.m. with dinner at 8 p.m.

The Saturday affair will take place of the club's regular Wednesday meeting in Orinda. Starting in July, Orinda Lions will meet at noon instead of the evening.

Miramonte Seniors Dance Until Dawn

Miramonte High School seniors celebrated the last days of their high school careers with an all-night party June 8 at Jack London Hall in Oakland.

Entertainment included dancing with music provided by Del Courtney's orchestra and vocal music by the King Sisters.

Topping the evening was a dawn breakfast.

Students who assisted with the party arrangements were: Ann Blow, Tina Cole, Carol Harmon, Mary Morehead, Lynn Bickerstaff, Walt Altofer, Bob Welsh, Bard Wilmar and Bill Caldwell. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Howard chaired the parents' committee.

T. H. Rivers Awarded Clipper Club Membership

T. H. Rivers of 5 Woodcrest Drive, prominent East Bay businessman with international connections, has been awarded membership in Pan American Airways' famous Clipper Club for "significant contributions to world air transport."

The presentation was made by Richard Boynton of Pan Am's Oakland headquarters at the Claremont Hotel, where Rivers' company, Eastern Petroleum Engineering Co., Ltd., has head offices.

RIVERS HAS racked up a total of more than 125,000 miles of air travel in Europe and the Orient in his international business relations.

He spent so much time in the Orient that until recently he maintained a separate home in Tokyo to serve him during visits.

The large, framed certificate of membership in the Clipper Club, signed by Pan Am's president, Juan Trippe, bears the legend that it was awarded not only for contributions to world air transport but to furtherance of international understanding.

CLIPPER CLUB membership is awarded in recognition of such activities, and not solely on the basis of miles flown, Boynton explained. Membership brings not only a mark of recognition but special lucite baggage tags, a wallet card for use in traveling, and the use of special facilities in some of the larger airports of the world.

Local Girls Graduate at Claremont

Orinda Teacher to Attend Institute

Thirty-seven teachers and supervisors have been selected by a Beloit College faculty committee to attend the National Science Foundation summer institute for elementary school personnel on the Beloit campus in Beloit, Wis. The eight-week program will begin July 19.

Among those attending are Mrs. Margaret Coffey, second grade teacher at Orinda school, Orinda, and Mrs. Elizabeth B. Zilen, consultant in instruction for the Mt. Diablo unified school district, 1936 Carlotta Avenue, Concord.

Eight Teachers Will Study

Eight Miramonte teachers will be studying this summer under grants awarded by various national organizations designed to offer opportunities for improving the training of high school teachers.

Participating in the National Science Foundation program in mathematics are Calvin Crabill, who will study at the University of Utah; George Zunich, whose work will be done at the University of California at Berkeley, and John Lewis who will study at the University of Rochester.

A National Science Foundation winner in biology is John Herron, who is enrolled at the University of Washington for the summer session.

MARY HENRIQUES, language teacher, will study at the University of Nevada, participating in the National Language Institute. Studying under the same program in Russian will be Don Black.

Another language teacher, Marion Calhoon, will be studying at Stanford University under a fellowship granted in the Latin classics.

Norma Korus, commercial teacher, will be participating in a business education and economics workshop at San Francisco State College.

LO-RAY Center's grand opening at Newell Avenue and South California Street, Walnut Creek, will be announced soon, but the store is now open for business. The most modern facilities will benefit the customer from a convenience and price standpoint, say managers.

Giant Lo-Ray Center Is Open for Business

The Giant Lo-Ray Center, Walnut Creek's newest and largest supermarket, is open for business.

But the official grand opening ceremonies will be announced later, according to Richard Pedracci, general manager.

The center, located at South California and Newell Avenue, will offer spaciousness for the shopper, variety for all members of the family and low prices for the most carefully managed budget.

The 28,000 square foot building, the latest venture of owner Ray Dickinson of Lafayette, represents an investment of more than $1,000,000.

MANAGER Pedracci said he is especially proud of the new mechanization processes built into the market itself.

They will result in large savings, lower prices and a resulting high volume of business, he said.

A tour of the market reveals an array of new equipment, such as an all force-feed conveyor belt needing no attending by personnel, a cooling system which replaces 120,000 cubic feet of air per minute, the widest aisles to be found in the area.

But Pedracci's greatest joy is found in the individual departments, such as the produce department which has the county's largest refrigerated area, more than 115 feet, plus more than 150 feet of display space.

There are many departments with display cases of the most modern type. But Lo-Ray Center has "special" areas, such as the barbecue stand, with chicken dinners, spare ribs, roast beef and pizzas, both cooked and uncooked.

THE FANCY foods department will have more than 65 feet of refrigerated space and another 65 feet of display.

"That department will have everything you can think of and some you haven't thought of from all over the world for that special occasion or that sudden urge," said Pedracci.

He added, "And our frozen food department will have 272 feet of display, everything will be displayed in one area with no obstructions for the roving shopper. The display cases are the newest and are the first of their type in the west."

Savings Will Result From Lo-Ray Features

Mechanized in the most modern sense, attractive in the most artistic sense, the Lo-Ray Center at South California Street and Newell Avenue will prove that the end result is money savings for the customer, said Richard Pedracci, general manager.

"We may not have the lowest prices on each and every item, but we are sure that all shoppers will see that they are saving dollars on each cart-full," he said.

Pedracci continued, "This has been the basis of the success of the Lo-Ray Market in Richmond, and we feel it will interest customers in the central county as well."

Here Are Lo-Ray's Managers—A Lot Depends on Them

No matter how much work goes into the creation of a fine, modern grocery market such as Lo-Ray Center at South California and Newell, much depends on its managers.

"We have the best," said Richard Pedracci, general manager.

Who are they? Meet them in print, now, and look for them on your first visit to Lo-Ray!

Frank Mirante, meat supervisor; Fred Remey, produce; Dick Jaha, snack stand.

Many Modern Facilities To Take Bows at Lo-Ray

The most modern facilities, some just making their debut on the West Coast, have been built into the Lo-Ray Center, a giant grocery firm opening at the corner of South California and Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Richard Pedracci, the store's general manager, said residents will have the chance to see the amazing changes made in stocking, supplying, displaying and moving the staple merchandise, and the new products which are offered in large variety.

A truly mechanized store from the groceryman's standpoint, it is a joy of convenience for the shopper.

PULL OUT an item of canned goods, another just like it pops into place.

Those cans arrived for placing in their chutes via a special force-feed belt, which requires a minimum of manpower.

The aisles allow lots of traffic, for they are wider than the aisles you are accustomed to.

AND THE aisles are not stacked with miscellaneous cans and supplies. Attractive displays make the shopper's tour an entertaining and informative stroll.

For sheer capacity, the Lo-Ray showcases can't be beat.

You will find plenty of what you want in the produce, frozen foods, fancy foods departments and wherever you go within the 28,000 square foot building.

Most memorable part of many shoppers' first visit will be the leaning towards art, in the form of a skillfully-finished mural on the back wall, and the art touches displayed above the products in many departments.

A visit to the meat department and its processing room in back would show that real cleanliness is not just a goal—it's an everyday reality, under the watchful eye of meat supervisor Frank Mirante.

IN ADDITION to the regular departments specifically designed to stock greater quantity, quality and variety, there are the "specials", like the barbecue stand, with barbecue chicken dinners, spare ribs, roast beef and pizzas, cooked and uncooked, ready to go.

The snack stand awaits. The donut shop beckons.

The "Wine Cellar" will have a selection surpassing even bright expectations.

And if you decide that you want it in the really-large size, those bulk sizes are available at the check stand.

YOU NEEDN'T handle your purchases at all, once in the super-size carts. It depends on the individual preference.

Furniture Is Taken from Two Alamo Homes

Burglaries at two model homes in Alamo last week highlighted the criminal activity in the area during the past seven days.

A burglary in Orinda and a break-in at St. Mary's College were also reported to sheriff deputies at the Lafayette sub station during the week.

General contractor John Osmundsen of Walnut Creek reported that his model home in Alamo was burglarized between 5 p.m. Tuesday and 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

The home is located at Via Romera and Via Larga.

A French window was forced to gain entry to the home.

More than $1000 in furniture was taken.

A MAGNAVOX stereo and radio console was taken from the home along with drapes, pictures, rugs, bedspreads, towels, mosaics, figurines and other furnishings.

More than $1500 in furnishings was taken from a model home at 2100 Granite Drive.

Herbert Larson of the Heers Brothers Company of Riverside said he discovered the burglary early Thursday morning.

He told deputies that a glass sliding door was open when he arrived for work in his garage office at the model home site.

Drapes valued at $400 were taken, along with a typewriter, bedstands, pictures, a desk set, pillows, plus other assorted furnishings.

Athletic director Jim Weaver of St. Mary's College reported to deputies that someone with a key opened the school's gym equipment room and made off with 10 basketballs Monday.

THE PERSONS also forced a door to the San Francisco 49ers storage room and took an undetermined amount of equipment, he said.

Valentine Brookes of 7 Sycamore Road, Orinda, reported to deputies that almost $1500 in cameras and special lenses was taken from his home Friday.

He and his wife arrived home at 6:30 p.m. Friday to find their home ransacked.

He told officers that the cleaning lady usually leaves at 5:30 p.m.

Rapid Transit Board Adopts 1¼ Million Budget

The Bay Area Rapid Transit District board of directors has adopted a budget totaling $1,237,000 for the fiscal year 1961-62.

The budget, the last before voters decide if a $1 billion transit system should be built, will require a tax levy of two cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Last year's tax was 1.7 cents.

The budget includes $565,000 for a high speed regional train network.

Vote on the fiscal document was 12-3. The dissenters argued that $300,000 should be pared from the research account.

The budget includes $70,000 to pay the costs of next June's election on the $1 billion transit plan.

The board also formally agreed to pay its share of right-of-way costs for the Grove-Shafter Freeway if the bond issue is approved.

Representatives of the board had previously agreed in Sacramento that a plan placing train tracks in the median strip of the freeway should be developed.

County Now Has Library 'Detective'

A detective of sorts is Lynden McCormick, whose job it is to recover an estimated $5,000 worth of long overdue books for Contra Costa County libraries.

In the first three days of his temporary job, McCormick retrieved $200 worth of the books in house-to-house calls on residents who failed to respond to third notices from the library.

For this personal call by McCormick, the overdue book holder is assessed $1 on top of the normal fine. Mrs. Bertha Hellum, county librarian, said the new system was devised so that books can be made available in the libraries for other readers.

She added that the county plans to follow through with court action against those who refuse to return books or to pay value of lost books.

Dramateurs Announce Officers

New officers of the Dramateurs were elected Monday night at a meeting held in the Town Hall, Lafayette.

Serving as the new president is John Phillips of Walnut Creek. Other officers are Philip Jelley, vice president; John Whitcomb, treasurer, and Sharon Williams, secretary.

The new sponsor chairman is Mrs. Bert Miller, who will be assisted by Fran VanLobenSells. Organizations interested in sponsoring a performance or performances may contact either of these people at YE 5-0948 or AT 3-6623.

Ticket reservations may be made by calling CL 4-5241, days, or the Town Hall evenings. Clarence Betz of Orinda will again serve as business manager for the Dramateurs.

Fluoridated Milk Bill Before State Legislature Now

A bill allowing dairies in California to fluoridate a quantity of milk for children's use was introduced to the legislature in mid-April by Walter Dahl.

If passed, the bill will allow fluoridated milk to be made available in stores like regular milk.

It would be sold at a reasonable cost for all parents who wish their children to have fluorides.

The bil is numbered 2659. If in favor of this bill, write to state assemblymen and senators to vote yes on it.

Almonas Meet Saturday

Almona chapter will hold their regular stated meeting June 17, 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, 1604 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Walnut Creek.

The chairman for the banquet room is Past Matron Alta Rosel, and the flower committee Emolene Near, Lucy Whyte and Edna De Martini, all past matrons.

Monty Graham Wins Prize

Monty Graham, a student at Acalanes High School, has been selected to receive the book prize from the Association Alumni of Brown University. The award was presented June 7.

Graham was chosen as "the junior who best combines a high degree of ability in English expression both written and spoken with those qualities which, in the words of the Brown Charter of 1764, give promise that he may become one of the 'sucession of men duly qualified for discharging the offices of life with usefulness and reputation!' "

He was one of more than 40 students from 18 states to be honored by the Brown alumni group.

$60,000 Left By Eva Bement To Hospital

A former Lafayette resident, Mrs. Eva Henderson Bement, who died January 27 at 83, left approximately $60,000 from her estate to Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Probate Judge Wakefield Taylor signed the order which disclosed the news June 10.

Mrs. Bement was the widow of Alburto Bement, a chemical engineer who died in 1946. She left an estate appraised at $79,685 by a state inheritance tax appraiser.

Two Comedies Planned for Summertime

Two productions will be presented by the Dramateurs this summer. The first, "Life With Father," is now in rehearsal and will open June 30. The play will run for four consecutive weekends.

The second production will be "Mr. Roberts," which is now being cast, according to John Phillips, president.

Eager Lo-Ray Customer To Find 'Ideal' Store

The eager customer at Lo-Ray Center, South California Street and Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, has a lot to look forward to.

The center's design and offerings were decided upon after months of planning, according to Richard Pedracci, general manager.

Pedracci said he is proud that his store has been created in an image so near to what he considers the "ideal."

Look for these features:

Produce Department — 275 feet of display space, of which 115 feet is refrigerated. Says Piedracci: "The finest available from locally grown tomatoes to cauliflower from our own ranch to endives from France. All prepared and displayed by a specially-trained staff of produce experts."

FROZEN FOODS — 272 feet of display, the largest in the area. In one area with no obstructions, in the most modern cases, first of their type in the west.

Fancy Foods—the largest variety and display in any market in Northern California; more than 65 feet of refrigerated and 65 feet of non-refrigerated. Said Pedracci: "Everything you can think of and some you haven't thought of from all over the world . . ."

Canned Hams — a new special refrigerated display for every size and type of canned ham, easy to select.

Cheese Display — all fine imported and hard to find domestic type cheeses in a new refrigerated air-curtain display case.

Bakery — pre-packaged for convenience. Special self-service refrigerated pastry display case.

Drug Sundry — complete selection for every need—displayed in a startling new manner.

DIETETIC FOODS — complete selection, wide range of sizes.

Wine Cellar—all the fine wines, both domestic and imported with an air-screen refrigerated case for chilled wines and champagnes.

Snack Stand — featuring hot dogs, snow cones, pop corn, soda water, coffee, donuts, sandwiches sliced pizza.

Barbecue Stand — barbecue chicken dinners, spare ribs, roast beef and pizzas, cooked and uncooked.

Donut Shop — both cake and raised donuts in large variety.

Pedracci said the check stands are automatic and the most modern. There is no customer unloading, and she is free to observe the entire transaction, he said.

He said the produce scales are developed so the customer can see the exact weight and the total retail selling price exactly as the checker sees it, ". . . eliminating guesswork and the old-fashion hanging type scales."

Pedracci added, "We offer a complete system of handling your purchase.

"We will gladly take it to your car or you may pick it up at our covered package pick-up station and put it in your car.

"Or, if you prefer, you may use our latest super-size carts to handle your own order."

Citizenship Given to 35 People

Citizenship has been given to 35 Contra Costa County residents this month by Superior Judge Martin E. Rothenberg.

Only one of the 36 applicants was denied naturalizatioin at the quarterly hearing following examination by the court.

Examiner Marvin E. Denekas of the U.S. Department of Immigration recommended the applicants be passed.

Those from this area naturalized were:

Walnut Creek—Hedy Deh-Yuin Wee, 158 Los Altos Avenue.

Pleasant Hill—Yoshiko Thompson, 152 Linda Lane; Beatrice Wilkinson Buxton, 166 Harriet Drive.

Lafayette — George Williams Burley, 981 Janet Lane.

Acalanes Accents -

Graduation Accents Week Of Senior Activities

By PENNY COUDEN

One mighty big accent and a lot of little exclamation points punctuated the activities of last week. The big one came when 340 graduating seniors filed onto the Acalanes Football Field to receive their diplomas last night.

The ceremony was impressive. The invocation was given by Reverend William C. Mays of the Hillside Covenant Church. His son, Bill, was one of the graduates. Senior Class President Geoff Picard and Jane Wolf gave the expression of appreciation speech and the graduation speech, respectively.

ALONG WITH all the other graduating seniors receiving their diplomas from Mrs. Duncan H. Knudsen and Will C. Hall, were Derek Knudsen and Sue Hall, the only two in the class who will know how it feels to receive such an important piece of paper from one's own parent . Mrs. Knudsen and Hall are both members of the board of trustees.

After contemplating the solemnity of the future, the seniors made a marked reversion to the typical teen-age thoughts of the present. Like anyone our age, the suggestion of a party, and especially of an ALL NIGHT party, sounds most inviting.

It is no wonder, then, that over 90 per cent of the class appeared at the Claremont Hotel that evening for the party sponsored by the Parents Club. Beginning at 10 and dancing, ping-ponging, bingoing, and EATING their way to 4:30 a.m. (yawn) this morning, the "had-been" seniors enjoyed a rousting All-Nite!

THOSE WHO worked so hard in preparing this party deserve many thanks. Mrs. V. Peabody and Sharon Garver (plus committee) assembled the decorations. Mrs. Underhill, Jan Trotter and Derek Knudsen all pulled together to see that tickets were sold and transportation problems solved. Mrs. Gordon McNulty and Don Morris cooperated on the job of lining up entertainment and managed to supply the party with the finest—Del Courtney and his Orchestra and a singing group called the Diamonds.

The big job of planning enough food for everyone fell into the hands of Mrs. William Harper and Betty Able (who, incidentally, did a deliciously fine job). These people are certainly well applauded for their work in the minds of the Class of '61.

AT THE AWARDS assembly last week, the names of award and scholarship winners were announced: Dave Silliphant, Rory Cory, Carol Annis, Nancy Holland, Marsha Bratten, Sharon Garver, Denny Parker, Mike Cheney, Everal Elke, Martha Pickering and Max Gruenberg, California Scholarship Federation Life Memberships; Lynn McGaffey, Education Association Future Teacher Scholarship (awarded by the teachers to the person who they feel has the greatest potential and abilities to become a teacher); Elaine Fossatti and David DuBois, Mathemetics Association of America $25 bond; Terry Lenard, California Industrial Education Award; Elaine Fossati, California Savings and Loan Award of $100; Charlie Manning, Mike Lincoln, Bill Hauss and Denny Toll, Audio-Visual and Stage Crew Awards and life passes to all Student Body functions; Ann Lombardo, Soroptimist Club Award (given to the most outstanding business student); Bill Palmer, Choral Music Award; Bill Mayes, Band Award; Marsha Bratten, University of California Alumni Scholarship; Elaine Fossati, Honors at Entrance, University of California.

Carol Annis, State of California Scholarship, Whitworth College Scholarship; Rory Cory, Scholarship to Harvey Mudd, Honors at Entrance, University of California; Dave Silliphant, Navy ROTC Four Year Scholarship, Stanford University.

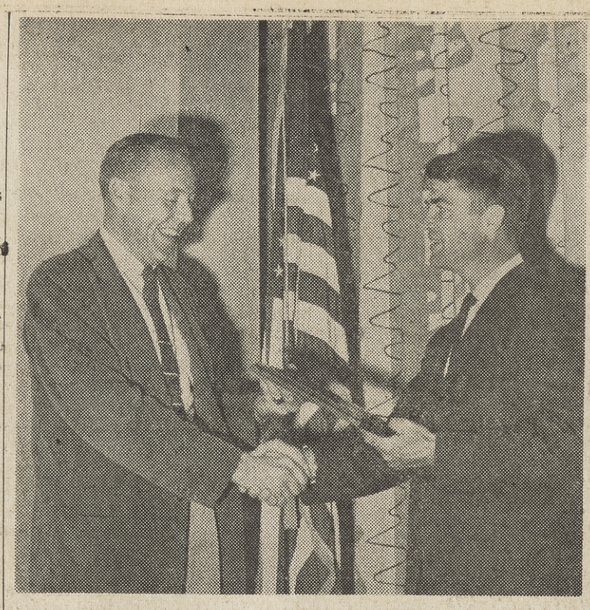
Juan Kelly, State of California Scholarship; Carol Schwartz, State of California Scholarship; Denny Parker, Honors at Entrance, University of California; Bob Southworth, State of California Scholarship, Northern California Society for Spectrocopy Scholarship.

JANE WOLF and Penny Couden, Los Amigos Scholarships; Linda Cump, Vogue Magazine $1000 Scholarship; Nancy Waldman, College of Arts and Crafts Scholarship; Marsha Bratten and Elaine Fossoti, California Scholastic Federation Awards (for receiving the highest grade point average of all the students. Both Marsha and Elaine have had a straight "A" average of 4.0. Not one single B in four years!).

Perhaps the most important award given at the assembly went to Jane Wolf. She received the award given to the most outstanding citizen of the school.

Because I am one of those who will be "overcrowding" the colleges next year, this is my last column. I have certainly appreciated the opportunity given by The Sun to write this column.

I have not only gained valuable experience, but have enjoyed the company of "unseen" readers. By the way, anyone know how I could turn this writing experience into a summer job?



A PLAQUE engraved "Presented this 25th day of April, 1961, to Edward T. Brown from the faculty of M. H. Stanley School as a token of our deepest appreciation of his outstanding leadership and sincere dedication to the welfare of the children and teachers whom he so ably serves," was given to Ed Brown, right, by Lyle Osmon, left, acting for the teachers of the school.

Del Valle Doings

Del Valle Takes Final Fling; Looks to Summer

By DAVE ANDERSON

The cry rings across the lands, "School's out!" and a very large echo is heard in the hills surrounding Del Valle. Winding up a hectic week of grueling finals, Del Valle students bade farewell to a season of fun and sun.

Last Friday, the Block Society hosted the GAA to what could be the first Annual Letter Club-GAA picnic. At any rate, all concerned had a very good time and were sorry to see the time fly so fast.

That day, about 40 Del Valle lettermen plus an equal number of girls boarded two buses for Wildwood Acres, located in the hills behind Fairview School in the Burton Valley. The "blast" commenced at 1:30 and wound up at 6:30 while the interim was spent in playing volleyball, baseball or pingpong, pitching horseshoes, swimming and eating.

"FOOT LONG" hot dogs with pop were the order of the day, and everyone, including teachers, ate heartily. Many thanks should be given Mr. Bellon, John Colwell and Barry Goggin for organizing the affair and rounding up the food, and providing boys and girls with a day to remember.

THE GAA also elected the following officers for next year: Judy Hillbery, president; Leslie Cook, vice president; Trudy Harden, secretary-treasurer; Julia McMeans, sports manager; and Linda Barneson, bowling secretary. Retiring officer in these posts are Pat Spingola, Sandy Bayliss, Sue Holm, Kathy Hopper and Judy Hillberry.

Part of Del Valle's teamwork and spirit will not be lost this summer as a group of boys will participate in the Lafayette summer basketball league under Del Valle's banner. A lot of these boys will be future varsity basketball players, and can gain valuable experience as well as learning more about their opponents through these games.

Camp Fire Group Holds Ceremony

The Ches Cha Ma Camp Fire Group of Lafayette held a ceremonial June 8 as their final meeting before summer vacation, to which the mothers and sponsors were also invited, at the home of their leader, Mrs. C. Van Wagner.

The sponsors, Mrs. H. C. Boghosian and Mrs. Carl Zander, presented the girls with the Trailseekers certificate and pin, their three-year pin, and the honor beads they had earned.

Laura Simpson, who will be moving from this area, was presented with a gift from the group.

The girls also attended the District 3 Grand Council Fire May 28 at Pleasant Hill High School when the girls were awarded their Trailseekers rank, and also received a three-year award for continuous membership in Camp Fire.

Go to Church Sunday

Presbyterain

The Moraga Valley Presbyterian Church service of worship is at 9:30 a.m., meeting in the Old Moraga School. Dr. White has selected as his sermon topic for Father's Day, "Our Father."

The Sunday Church School meets during the service of worship at 9:30 a.m. in the Old Moraga School. An old-fashioned Sunday school picnic is planned for Redwood Park on June 24.

Christian

Church officers for the coming year were elected at the Lafayette Christian Church.

A. C. Hammon will continue as chairman, and assisting him will be W. H. Somerton, vice-chairman; Mrs. Travers Hilson, secretary; Donald Tunnicliff, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Holmes, historian.

"The Misunderstanding of the Church" is the sermon topic chosen by the Reverend Darwin Mann for Sunday. At 7:30 p.m. Sunday the first of a series of four discussions on "What Is the Church?" will take place.

Worship services begin at 10 a.m. Church school classes are at 9 a.m. Nursery care is provided.

Vacation church school will be held for four consecutive Wednesdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, beginning June 21.

Christian Science

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read Sunday at Christian Science churches.

The superiority of divine law over the laws of matter will be emphasized. Included in the Bible readings is the account in John (6) of how Christ Jesus walked on the sea to join his disciples in their ship.

Christian Science churches are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1437 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; at the corner of Grant and Park Streets, Concord, and the Lafayette Society, 3322 Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Unitarian

Mt. Diablo Unitarian Church will hold its annual all-day family picnic Sunday at Castle Rock Park.

The summer program of the church will be inaugurated June 25.

Guest ministers and lay speakers will be presented on Sunday mornings at the American Red Cross Building, 2121 Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek.

Numerous other activities will continue throughout the summer, including adult discussion groups and various social activities.

Methodist

"A New World Vision" will be the sermon topic of the Reverend George E. Berry at the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, this Sunday.

Morning worship services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Church school classes for all the family are at 9:30 a.m. Nursery care is provided during both worship services.

The Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship (seventh and eighth graders) meet at 7 p.m. in the educational building of the church. The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship (high school) meet at 7 p.m. in the MYF room of the church. Those interested are cordially invited.

Episcopal

A special summer confirmation class will start this Sunday at St. Anselm's Episcopal Church, 682 Michael Lane.

This class will be held from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. in the parish hall and will be the final confirmation class conducted by The Rev. Clarence Stacy before he leaves.

The class is open to everyone interested.

There will be holy communion at 8 a.m. in the church and morning prayer and holy communion at 10 a.m., with the Rev. Stacy conducting both services. There is no church school during the summer months.

FOR ATHLETE'S FOOT

Use instant-drying T-4-L for 3 to 5 days. Watch fresh, healthy skin replace the infection. Ease aching, swelling, perspiring in the 66 joints of the feet by bathing them with T-4-L twice daily. If not surprised and pleased, your 48c back from any drug store. NOW at VALLEY PHARMACY

Baptist

Rev. John Mills from Oakland will be the guest minister at the First Baptist Church of Orinda-Lafayette at the Sunday morning worship service at 11 o'clock.

There is a children's church, junior church and nursery under competent leadership available during the 11 o'clock service. Rev. Mills will also be preaching at the 7 o'clock family evening service.

The annual Sunday School picnic will be held at Regional Redwood Park this Saturday at 10 o'clock. Everyone is invited. If in need of a ride, call YE 4-7703.

Other services of the church include a graded Sunday school which begins at 9:45 using Gospel Light Press materials under the direction of Ken Bull; the Baptist Youth Fellowship for all young people junior high age and up beginning at 6:15 p.m.; and the mid-week Bible study prayer and praise service on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

This church is located on the El Nido Frontage Road, just one-fourth mile east of the Charles Hill Freeway exit.

Episcopal

Sunday services for St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda go on summer schedule this week, with Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m., a short family service at 9 a.m., and Choral Eucharist at 10 a.m., with the Senior Choir continuing to sing at the later service.

Last meeting of the Junior Episcopal Young Churchmen will be held Sunday evening at 7 p.m. in Hill Memorial Hall. Subject for discussion will be "What Is Christianity?"

Ordination of Rev. Melvin Brown will take place Thursday at 8:15 p.m. with Bishop James A. Pike officiating.

Church of Christ

Bible School lesson at the 9:45 a.m. study time for the eight to 10 year olds will be in the sixth chapter of Acts.

Adult class is studying the Life of Christ.

Morning worship service begins at 11 a.m. with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

The morning message will be "A Photograph of God" brought by the minister, Jack Clough.

Mid-week prayer and Bible study will be held on Wednesday evening at the minister's home.

This church in the home is a non-denominational group and meets in the home of Jack Osborn at 11 Crest View Drive in Orinda. All visitors are welcome.

Evening service will be at 7 p.m. and the message is entitled "God's Questions."

Presbyterain

The Rev. William Carl Thomas will begin a three-part series of sermons on Sunday relating to "Christianity and Communism" at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, 49 Crest Road, Lafayette.

The initial sermon will be "Principles of Christian Judgment," and reference will be made to the John Birch society as an example. A study outline will be in the church bulletin.

The summer worship schedule will begin Sunday with two services, one at 9 o'clock and one at 10:30 a.m. Nursery will be held at both services.

Church school through kindergarten 1 only will be held at 9 a.m. There will be no church school classes for school-age children during the summer, and the adult study classes will be adjourned until fall.

Suburban

This Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Suburban Bible Church the Rev. Gray Lambert will speak on the subject "Joseph the Earthly Father of Christ, an Example of a Good Father."

Also at the 11 o'clock hour the extended church school will meet under the direction of the church school staff and at 10 the Sunday school will meet.

The public is cordially invited to the services of the church and anyone desiring further information about the church or its related activities is asked to call AT 4-4959.

Episcopal

St. Giles, the new Episcopal Mission, formed to serve the area south of Glorietta and Rheem Boulevards, was formally organized at a meeting held Thursday evening, June 8, in the Mission's temporary chapel in the Rheem Shopping Center.

The Right Reverend George Richard Millard, Suffragan Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California represented Bishop Pike at the Organization Meeting. He received the Missions petition to be recognized, announced the Mission's name as St. Giles and declared the Mission duly organized.

Jack Prescott, chairman of the Mission's original steering committee, was appointed Bishop's Warden. Those elected to membership to the Bishop's Committee are Jean Bates, Richard Spear, David Jones, Fred Stolz, Earl Lawver, Russ Moore, James Sweeney and James Nichol.

Bishop Pike is expected to name a vicar to serve St. Giles within the next two weeks.

Services at the new Mission are scheduled to begin with Morning Prayer on July 2 at 10 a.m.

NEARLY EVERYONE READS THE SUN!

The early bird service is conducted at 8.15 a.m.

Sunday school departmental classes will be held for all ages at 9:15 a.m. with special material on "God's Holy Law."

The second service will begin at 10 a.m. A nursery service is provided from 9:15 a.m. through the second service for the convenience of those with small children.

The teenagers will meet for a special summer Bible study and discussion program on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. This first meeting will be at the parsonage.

Baptist

"The Father's Responsibility" is the Sunday morning Father's Day sermon topic of Rev. Paul Byram, pastor, Calvary Baptist Church, Lafayette. Sunday school meets at 9:45.

"How High Can You Reach?" is the topic of the 7:45 p.m. sermon, directed to this year's high school graduates. Training union meets at 6:30. Fellowship hour will follow the evening worship service, honoring the graduates.

Other special guests will be the Don Savage family who leave soon for a year in Paris, France, where Savage will be working in connection with the National Museum of Natural History of France.

Dr. Elmer Gray, professor of church administration, Golden Gate Theological Seminary, will teach preview studies of next quarter's Sunday school lessons June 20, at 7:30 p.m.

B. Bushman Manages Rheem Safeway Store

Burdette Bushman, whose appointment as manager of the Rheem Safeway was announced in April, is no stranger, either to the area or to Safeway.

Bushman has been with Safeway for 12 years, six of which were spent at the old Safeway store in Walnut Creek, where he was manager for one year.

With his wife, Stella, and three children, ages 16, 15, and 8, Bushman resides at 248 Douglas Way, Walnut Creek. The family has lived in the area for 14 years.

A pilot of a B-17 during World War II, Bushman came to California and liked it so well he determined to settle here.

His most recent store was located in Oakland. "I am very happy to be back in this area," Bushman said, "it is like coming home." I think this is the nicest place in the world to live and work."

Bushman, who has been in the grocery store business all of his working life, started his career with Safeway as a clerk.

Lutheran

Worship services at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 433 Moraga Way, Orinda, will be held at 8 and 11 a.m.

Rev. Hidy will speak on the subject, "The Gospel for You."

Miss Sandra Ivy will sing at the 11 a.m. service. Her selection will be, "Faith Can Move Mountains."

Sunday school classes begin at 9:30 a.m.

Pastor Hidy conducting the opening service in the church for the Sunday school.

Troop 243 Has Honor Court

Scoutmaster Robert Brackett of Troop 243 awarded the Life Scout pin to Richard Scloor at a Court of Honor held recently at Fairview School.

Merit badges were received by Alan Scharlach, David Brackett, Jeff Franklin, Clark Radcliff, Bob Lorton, John St. Aubin and Michael Schnieder.

First class pins were awarded John St. Aubin, Clark Radcliff and Bill Lundquist. Second class pins were awarded Bill Price, Greg Soria, Dan Muth, Jinny Orann, Stephen Wall, Robert Hawkinson, Joel McDonald and Hayward Kaiser. Six boys earned their Tenderfoot badges.

Scoutmaster Brackett discussed the past six months' activities. Bud Lundquist, commissioner, gave several awards to the troop. Arthur Scharlach discussed the High Sierra hike planned for July.12 years.

Miss McKeegan Takes Hobo Tour

Michele McKeegan, a spohomore at the University of California at Berkeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett K. McKeegan of Thompson Road in Lafayette, will participate this summer in the Hobo Tour travel program of the United States National Student Association.

College students from all over the country will participate in the tour.

AMONG the countries included in Hobo Tour's program are: Holland, Germany, France, Switzerland, Austria and Italy.

The program is arranged by students—for students—with European guides who are native university students familiar with their country's art, history, traditions, social institutions and music. Over six thousand students have traveled with the National Student Association in the past

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

June Is Busting Out All Over!

The thermometer hit over 100 in Orinda Village mid-week, the day of the Pine Grove Graduation Class Picnic at the Park Pool, so there's be a lot of sun-burned noses & sensitive shoulders under those starched shirts tonight at Commencement.

FUN IN THE SUN . . . The day bowing in beautiful, cloudless & blue . . . The early-riser up & about to bask in the preciousness of their own private world . . . A quick trip to the rose garden while the coffee brews to bring back a prize bloom for the breakfast table.

SUNDAY IN SUBURBIA . . . Paper boys on their rounds silently swinging along & listening to the world wake up . . . The almost sacriligeous sound of a 6:30 ayem buzz saw as some industrious homeowner gets in a few domestic licks before dressing for church.

THE sounds of the still morning broken by a barking dog . . . Another canine casing the porches for his daily quart of milk . . . & in another neighborhood, the pooch who prefers to pick on the sour cream containers . . .

A red squirrel streaks through the old oaks & a few itinerant pigeons come to perch on the roof . . . The petunias pop open to trumpet the day & the sweet peas blaze in pastel profusion along the cyclone fence in the village.

THE SNAILS ignore the snail bait & have a Sunday feast stripping down to nothing the new zinnia and snapdragon seedlings.

IN SLEEPY HOLLOW . . . two wide-awake little lepidopterists (awful word!) are gleeful over the butterflies they've bagged in their mesh nets! But compassion wins . . . & they let the delicate things flutter off, much the worse for the snare.

ON YOUR WAY TO CHURCH . . . children playing quietly in a neighborhood swing & sandbox while the weary parents have their weekly sleep-in . . . In another house, the firemen are leaving after an early dawning SOS call to come & put out the fire & the home's newly-remodeled bathroom . . . needs remodeling again! Better than the little boy . . . who was playing with matches . . . needing a remodeling.

CHURCH BELLS chiming, family wagons climbing the hills to worship in rows of Togetherness . . . The congregation sprinkled w/ Sunday Best serenity . . . & a few quick-silver toddlers leading their dads & moms a merry chase. ALL OVER the place!

POP Goes the Beer Can!

The afternoon ushering in a new set of sounds . . . children chortling over a childish prank . . . family members fighting over sections of the Sunday papers. "But I had it first, Daddy, I had it first!" The merriment of moppets around a tether ball pole, the explosive pop of beer cans being opened by the neighbors next door.

THE TOOTING OF horns as cars pass in greeting . . . the shhhhh of the hose as the Young Man douses the family car . . . John Ogden in his '28 Model "A."

AT THE POOL . . . A big big parasol & under it, a single tiny baby holding court in the shade . . . Margy Ford studying the Stock Market . . . & Eleanor Moore testing herself w/index cards imprinted w/conversational French!

A SWARM OF BEES, Millions of 'em, around the house & the harried householder calling for help from dentist Dr. Joe Brothers, bee fancier, who said "Turn the hose on 'em" . . . If that doesn't work, there's always Richard Orr, Young Man About Town, who (for a fee) can woo them away.

Fran Yedidia glued to KQED & waxing deliriously over her high bid for the choice bonsai plants . . . Now for those tickets to Sound of Music! . . . Ted Schilling headed for baseball w/a brand new baseball mitt (reduced from $35.00 to $24.75 & as my kids say 'ONLY $24.75, Mom! ONLY! Most overused word in the English language!) but anyhow, it's Ted's gorgeous graduation gift!

BLOW BY BLOW plays of the GIANTS game blaring forth from points east, west, north & south . . . & the first smoke signals of a Sunday cook-out sailing skyward, scenting the air w/that tantalizing "C'mon Over!"

THOSE IN THEIR SPLIT-Level houses doing their split-level best when barraged by Sunday Company who just "drop in for a few minutes" & settle down to stay through dinner . . . & finish off your weekly allotment of Gin.

Sunday Drive & you suddenly notice that the green hills have that soon switched to their golden straw stage . . . Tall in the saddle, a young girl rides proudly along on her recently-acquired horse & low in the driver's pit, a frustrated fly-boy, intent on destroying himself & his sports car, careens around curve after curve & then without stopping, zooms onto the highway—So Peaceful in the Country!

GREAT EXPECTATIONS Dept.: The Lincolns will welcome their EIGHTH in the Fall . . . The Ted Birrs, Blake Calders & the Russ Usingers are also among the Expectant Ranks . . . Oh, & the Bill Pruchas, too . . . & wasn't that a Stork smiling down on the Garbarino residence again?

THE DICK Kilners will exchange their Orinda one for a Palo Alto postmark. Helen & Pat Golden will take up residency in the Philippines soon. The Navy man is an Oak Knoll doctor.

ORINDA SCHOOL TEACHER Patricia McCann will teach this summer in the Islands & George & Betty Hall will hie family-style to Hawaii leaving maybe soon as this weekend. All packed, kiddies?

ENGAGED is Judy Meyer, dghtr. of Dick & Maxine Myer. The bride-to-be who'll wed her Erroll Petersen upon her graduation from Arizona State next spring, will hostess a shower for Linda Axelson next Mon., Linda being among the June Brides.

A Sunday departure for Europe-bound Dick Myer, son of same family, who'll be in New York until July 19 w/a charter group thence heading for London where he'll meet Ron Brown, son of the Robert Browns, who flies off today. The boys who've planned the trip since they were Cal Freshmen, will pick up scooters in Italy & tour the country w/Germany's highlight a reunion w/Eberhard, the exchange student who lived w/the Brown family a few years back.

Charles Kersten: Balances Books, Busy Family Life

PUT A FATHER'S DAY crown, please, on Charles Kersten for performance of paternal duties above and beyond the line of duty.

An accountant with St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company in San Francisco, the tall lean easy going Orindan gets a credit on the ledger for the two treasurer posts he's been tapped for —He'll keep the books for Orinda Park, Inc. (where his family swims and plays), and do treasurer duties for the Pine Grove Parents' Club.

Kersten balances a busy family life as easily as he balances the books and his is a familiar face at practically all the places fathers program) to Cubs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, school activities and show up, from Indian Guides, Indian Princesses (under the "Y" active participation in the Orinda Community Church.

THE NATIVE Chicagoan's king-sized family of Canon Drive number nine with energetic wife Laurie and a handsome brood of industrious offspring whose hobbies and interests include son Mike's rabbit business, paper routes, baby-sitting, swimming honors and the upkeep of a well-stocked vegetable garden.

School Year's End Brings Parties, Awards, Tributes

By YVONNE MAUZEY
DR 6-4083

At the June 5 meeting of the Moraga School Board it was announced that Mrs. Elaine Read, clerk of the board for the past 11 years, will retire.

Members of the school board praised Mrs. Read very highly and were sorry to see her leave. "It will be difficult to find someone to replace her," stated Don Falconer, chairman.

Tuesday's Funday at Rheem Estate had a good turnout in spite of the horrible morning weather. Brenda Bradley "ways and means" stated at the last Parents' Club meeting $237.64 profit was made on Funday.

ESSAYS OF the winners of the essay contest were read by their authors, and they were presented with gold cups. Then Marie Wright, past president, turned the gavel over to Dawn Christensen, who introduced her new board. They are Jean Bates, membership chairman; Nell Prescott, telephone; Ann Thatcher, education; Marguerete Everett, health; Jerry Tarpley, historian; Marie Wright, parliamentarian; Margaret Harlow, publicity; Jo Ann Bryant, refreshments; Irene Anderson, room representative; Lois Nelson, welfare; Bernice Glueck, civilian defense; Annette Rockoff, social ways and means; Donna Preece, library, and Audrey Rockwell, art.

Refreshments consisted of a large good luck cake and coffee. and rootbeer, served by Jackie Perisho and Faye Parker.

THE SIXTH grade had their outing June 8. The students and 10 adults had a Spanish dinner at El Charros in Lafayette. The dinner consisted of Spanish rice, tacos, enchiladas, refried beans, corn chips and milk.

The Parents Club held their final presentation of the year June 9 under the direction of Marie Wright, past president.

A presentation was made to the teachers and staff of the Rheem School. Each teacher received an expandable bookcase to set on the desk. Mr. Wedgewood was honored with a gift of a tank type vacuum cleaner to easy the heavy work load. The gift was presented to Mr. W. from the parents and children of the Rheem School. He is well thought of by everyone, children running to him with a hurt to be mended by a pleasant word and a tender hand. To the older children he has taught knitting and songs and games, organized contests and made an unlimited supply of knitting spools.

IN PRESENTING his gift, Marie said, "Our children love him as proven by the fact that he has the largest collection of Valentines that I know of. The parents are fond of him and sincerely appreciate his patience and kindness to our youngsters and to us, for he has helped us in many ways, always cheerily, always willingly.

Last Saturday Elinor Dickenson (postmaster) held a baby shower in honor of Ruby Pagliero. The 50 guests enjoyed a pot luck dinner in Elinor's home. A mone ytree was given to Ruby to purchase her needs for the coming event.

A sadness has befallen the neighborhood of Rheem. Dureta Hamilton passed away last week following a blackout from a brain hemorrhage. She left behind her husband and two children, 11 months and 4 years. Condolences to you.

THE RHEEM boys won the baseball game with San Ramon, 4-0, with Bill Bowne on the hill pitching a no-hitter.

It has been recently announced that Christian Brothers were purchasing the Rheem Estate. The estate will be for the use as a residence of the region head of Christian Brothers known as the provincial. They operate St. Mary's College and several high schools in the area and own and operate Christian Brothers Winery, whose main offices will be near Napa.

Brother Betram, who will reside with the provincial, John Brood, attorney, and Ramsey Underwood, real estate agent, met with the civic affairs committee of the Moraga Community Club June 3 to discuss the proposed application of the land use permit.

IT WILL be the principal residence for six or seven, not to exceed 11, brothers, a full time groundkeeper and perhaps one clerical employee, present during the day.

There will be no church retreat or organized activities on the property, no church services or school, nor will the winery business be conducted at the estate.

The committee endorsed the application for land use permit and welcomed Brother Bertram and his other provincials as new neighbors of Moraga.

Nell Prescott's mother returned home to Port Arthur, Canada, last week after a visit of five and a half weeks and a grand tour of the area. Her favorite place was the Tonga Room with the rain, thunder and lightning.

The Gourmet Club held their last dinner May 20 at the home of Elly and Clarence Nissens in Berkeley. The dinner was Mexican, with a menu in Spanish and Spanish signs over the front door and even a pinata hanging over the dining table.

I UNDERSTAND Scout Troop 34 girls gave a shower to Ruby Pagliero, their co-leader, at their last meeting.

The board of the Episcopal church held a meeting the other night and elected the bishops committee of nine members and the bishops warden, Jack Prescott.

The name chosen for the new church to be established in Moraga will be St. Giles. The location has not been decided yet. Services will be held in the vacant store at the Rheem Center near the theater starting July 2. The new minister will be appointed next week.

From Radio To TV Media For R.F. McGeary

Richard F. McGeary of Lafayette, NBC Radio Spot Sales account executive in Hollywood and San Francisco since 1956, will become a TV account executive in the Los Angeles office of the Katz Agency, media representatives, June 23.

McGeary started in the broadcasting business in 1950 as an account executive for the Southern California Broadcasting Company, KWKW Radio, Pasadena.

From 1952 to 1956 he was an account executive for the Mutual Broadcasting Company in Hollywood. He was with NBC Spot Sales in Hollywood from 1956 to 1959 and in San Francisco from 1959 to the present.

McGEARY was born in Brockton, Massachusetts, and attended Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, and Kent State University in Kent, Ohio, graduating with a degree in commerce.

He served in the United States Air Force in the South Pacific from 1943 to 1946.

McGeary and his wife, Ann, have five children, Kathleen, 10; Michael, 8; Megan, 7; Thomas, 6, and Christopher, 16 months. They have lived since 1959 at 3155 Indian Way in Lafayette. McGeary has served as assistant cubmaster of Cub Scout Troop 238 in Lafayette.

Miss Tinay Wins Wings

Miss Marilouise Tinay, a graduate of Acalanes High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tinay of San Francisco, has won her wings as a stewardess with Northwest Orient Airlines.

Following her graduation from Northwest's stewardess school, she was based at Washington, D.C., and is serving as a crew member on Northwest flights out of the nation's capital.

Miss Tinay has been previously employed with American Airlines, United States Oveaseas Airlines, Overseas National Airlines and Admiral Arlines as a stewardess.

How Effective Is Our County Plan Commission?

The Contra Costa Grand Jury last week announced its recommendations concerning the County Planning Commission, and honestly, there are a few points that don't seem in the best interests of those of us who own and maintain our own homes here.

The Grand Jury committee, for one thing, recommended that night meetings of the commission be abolished.

We emphatically oppose this move. Most residents of the central part of our county are commuters. They are not generally available to attend day meetings of a governing body, whereas they can—and frequently do—attend night meetings.

TO CANCEL THE night meetings would be to effectively cut off the voice that most of us, as residents, care to use from time to time.

Our residents have a right to be heard by the commissioners. They should not be silenced by the scheduling of meetings which they cannot attend.

However, we do agree with some of the other recommendations made by the Grand Jury committee. Certainly some effort should be made to cut down on red tape and unnecessary delay so that subdivisions and other forms of building can get under construction faster than is currently possible.

We feel, too, that the recommendation to change commission members more frequently and to rotate the chairmanship of the commission is a good idea. The grand jury recommended that the term of commissioners should be limited to one term of office for four years.

THIS SEEMS unnecessarily harsh—perhaps two terms of four years — an eight year maximum — would be more realistic. This should be considered, primarily, from the point of view of the hard-working members of the commission themselves.

This is not an easy job and it requires many meetings and many hours of study. We have a right to ask only so much from our commissioners.

We disagree with the Grand Jury, also, when it suggests a mandatory retirement age of 70 years. This is a perfect job for retired men—men with experience—and to set a mandatory retirement age of 70 would be to penalize many of our best possible commissioners.

THE GRAND JURY also recommended that possible candidates for the commission should be recruited from within the building industry itself.

We question the wisdom of this because it could provide an embarrassing situation for the members of the commission.

For example, if a developer were appointed to the commission he might very well find himself called upon to rule on a competitor, and this would not be fair to anybody.

There is one other area which we feel that the planning commission should investigate. Shouldn't the commission be leading the way in an effort to improve the long-range planning of the county?

True, the technical staff does the actual planning, but it is obvious that the commission itself should be a policy board and should provide the direction for the technical staff.

These men should be more than mere arbiters in zoning disputes—they should provide the guidance that will ultimately provide for planning and zoning on a county-wide basis that will be in keeping with the kind of development that we wish to see as the county continues to grow.

SHOULD THE master plans for the entire area be reviewed? Should there be long-range planning that is realistic, and that is presented so that we, as homeowners, can see what direction that our community is taking?

We feel that this is what we, as homeowners, have a right to expect of our planning commission if it is going to act effectively to help us develop our community the way we want it done.

If They Can, We Can! No Reason Why Not

A fine example of cooperation between governmental agencies for the benefit of residents was provided recently when Governor Edmund Brown extended an agreement to coordinate rapid transit with the Grove-Shafter freeway in Oakland.

Governor Brown said that join planning by the State Department of Public Works and the Bay Area Rapid Transit District will proceed on the route.

The transit district wants to place its tracks down the center of the freeway.

Now, this is very interesting, because it is the exact counterpart of a local difficulty.

RESIDENTS OF Lafayette, Sun Valley, Saranap and Walnut Creek have been begging the rapid transit district to locate its tracks along the freeway between Walnut Creek and Lafayette.

But for various reasons the rapid transit district insists on keeping its present routing — down Olympic Boulevard, the former Sacramento Northern Railroad right-of-way.

This would entail the removal of many lovely and expensive homes besides routing high-speed trans through nice residential areas.

Obviously it would be to the benefit of all if the routing could be located on the freeway.

And here we have an example of the fact that it can be done. To put it bluntly, they can do it in Oakland and they can do it here. After all, they are following the freeway from Orinda to Lafayette, and it makes sense to us that they should follow the freeway from Lafayette to Walnut Creek.

THE RAPID TRANSIT District is not going to build any kind of facilities without the passage of a bond issue. And, bluntly, people are not going to vote for a district which they do not approve.

We need rapid transit, badly, and our automobile congestion is going to get worse. It behooves the rapid transit district to at least make an attempt to please the people.

District representatives have said that it would be more expensive to adopt the freeway routing rather than the Olympic Boulevard route, but we are not convinced that this is so.

We are dead sure that right-of-way purchases along the freeway would be cheaper than buying up beautiful, expensive homes along Olympic Boulevard.

To say nothing of the wishes of the people.

Vacationing? Read This And Save Trouble

We know you've read this before, but if you've forgotten it, then this is a fine time for a reminder.

If you happened to miss it the first time around, it might save you a lot of money.

You're probably going on vacation this summer, and your home is likely to be empty for a while.

Here are the steps you should follow so that you don't invite burglars.

LEAVE ONE OR two lamps connected to an automatic timer to turn lights off and on regularly each evening . . . or have a neighbor do it for you.

Close and lock all doors and windows.

Cancel milk and newspaper deliveries. An accumulation of bottles or papers is a sure sign no one is home.

Notify the sheriff's office (or the Walnut Creek Police Department if you live within the city limits).

HAVE THE POST office stop delivery of mail or have a neighbor collect it. Make sure no store deliveries are made during your absence.

Leave shades or blinds as you normally would when you are at home. Never close them completely.

Tell a neighbor when you are leaving and ask him to keep an eye on your home.

Burglars have big ears so never advertise your departure with an item in the paper.

Letters to The Editor

REASSESSMENT
Dear Editor:

The considerable interest in the reassessment of the area brings three points to mind.

First, in the last several years when other parts of the county have been reassessed. I think the general feeling in Lafayette has been that "they" deserved it—they had been getting away with murder for years. Of course, our assessments were too high here to begin with.

The second point that people should clearly understand is what is generally known as Parkinson's Second Law which states that expenses will rise to meet income. This is exactly what is concerning everybody in this area — that even the same tax rate per $100 of assessed value will produce more money for the taxing bodies and they will immediately find some way to spend it.

PARKINSON thouroughly developed this in his second book both as to the application of the individual (they are always going to save the difference between the old salary and the new salary—but it seems to slip away anyway) and the governmental bodies.

The third and final point, which is of considerable interest to me, is the solution that has been reached in Nevada. In many cases, Nevada tends to copy California, but in this particular case they are far ahead. Nevada has imposed a maximum property tax rate of $5.

If the city and the county come up with a tax rate that is in excess of $5, then the matter is thrashed out before a board to determine who cuts how much. In other words, they have set a maximum tax rate.

It is obviously silly to think in terms of a $5 maximum in Contra Costa County but a $9 maximum would represent a savings for practically everyone, it would still leave Contra Costa County among the top counties in California.

UNFORTUNATELY, we may find that the county agencies, organizations, and boards have greater influence in the legislature than do the citizens in trying to impose a maximum combined property tax rate. This appears to me to be the only way upon which some pressure can be maintained to reduce expenditures at all levels and unfortunately the loop hole in this approach is that the county could get the same amount of money merely by increasing the assessment.

The State Boar dof Equalization is concentrating mainly upon counties that under assess, and probably would not raise any complaint if a county assessed higher than the average set for all counties.

MOVIES
Dear Editor:

(Ed. Note: The following letter was written to Sun columnist Marie Monahan regarding a recent column she wrote regarding the moral code of movies. We present it here for your interest.)

I understand through a friend who follows your column in The Sun that you recently wrote an excellent article on the moral condition of motion picture films now being shown.

We too are most concerned about the sickness of the current crop of movies and have just written an article on this subject for a leading Christian magazine, "The Twentieth Century Christian."

WE WOULD LIKE very much to have a copy of your editorial dealing with movies and would like permission to submit it to the editors of this magazine for possible reprinting.

IF REPRINTED, it would give you full credit and would be distributed all over the world.

Perhaps if enough voices are raised in protest, something constructive will be done about film content. It is evident that at the present pace, filmdom will soon be given over almost completely to the obscene and offbeat.

LEWD CALLS
Dear Editor:

The editorial (5/12/61), "Your Youngsters Couldn't Be Guilty . . . Of Course Not," ends on an unnecessarily pessimistic note, "because without question he can find the opportunity to indulge in this activity (lewd telephone conversations) if he so wishes."

On the contrary, there is a simple defense.

It is suggested that adults or brothers of the girls who are exploited answer all phone calls in order to determine the identity of the caller.

This will not solve the problem (in the mind of the disturbed youth), but this strategy will rob him of his necessary anonymity and stop the dirty game.

Ulcers? Nerves? We Can Learn from the Tahitians

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

BORA BORA, SOCIETY ISLANDS, SOUTH PACIFIC—We could learn a lot from the happy, carefree people of Bora Bora and Tahiti.

"No. I've never heard of a Tahitian having ulcers or a nervous breakdown," answered Ed Peterson, local manager of South Pacific Air Lines, which flies from Honolulu to Papeete, Tahiti. "And there's not one psychiatrist in all of French Polynesia."

SPAL'S travel folders call the brown-skinned Tahitians "friendly, relaxed Polynesians with a spontaneous charm."

Believe me, they are.

How many people do you know that are "happy, relaxed and carefree" most of the time?

"Look at our storekeepers," Ed pointed out. "Stores open at 8 a.m. and close at 11 a.m. The people eat, relax. They reopen the stores at 2 and close at 5. They're open Saturdays only 'till 11 and close Sunday."

TAHITIAN CHILDREN can always eat and drink a delicious coconut—or pick bananas, papaya, mango from the trees. And they are so very happy, healthy —and well behaved.

Meanwhile — back in the states

I then told Ed about the food stores in Contra Costa County that open seven days and nights each week; some of our major stores also open three nights a week.

"Did you notice that many store owners frequently send you to their competitors if they didn't have exactly what you wanted?" Ed asked.

The Tahitians, whether part French, part English or 100 per cent Polynesian, have a relaxed, happy approach to life. When they work, they work hard. When they relax, they relax completely.

This is something I could learn. How about you?

They sing at every opportunity, often accompanied by a guitar and coconut ukelele. I saw deck hands perperform back-breaking work loading bags of copra, oil drums and steel rails aboard a small island hopping boat.

But when the ship was on its way, these stevedores sat on the deck, singing the haunting Tahitian songs.

Hello there . . .

Eating alone in the Canton Restaurant, I was asked to join a party of eight, two of whom I had met casually at a Sunday party. This is the cordiality and friendliness you find again and again in Tahiti.

I had eaten, but they insisted that I share their delicious Chinese food and wonderful French wine. Suddenly eating slowed down. A guitar appeared. A flashing-eyed vahine from another table joined the party.

Is the Tahitian too carefree? If a party roars too long Sunday, he may simply not come to work Monday. This happens often.

Fire him? He doesn't care. He will always have a roof over his head and food to eat.

This is their secret

This, of course, is the prime reason the Tahitians can be carefree and relaxed.

Andre, a handsome French-Tahitian, explained where he "acquired" the food for a Sunday feast.

"We caught three kinds of fish and clams this morning. We knocked down coconuts for the coconut milk and picked breadfruit (a very good fruit—which tastes somewhat like bread after baking)."

Most Tahitians own a piece of land. (French government will not permit foreigners to buy land.) I believe the French have done a much better job for the Tahitians than the U.S. or Britain would have done. Just look at the native Hawaiians.

How the children fare

Do the children suffer because they have no TV, only one radio station, usually no newspaper in the home or no comic books?

After visiting several homes, this question is almost funny. The children are delightful. They fish and swim and go to school, mostly to the fifth grade.

And they are so well behaved. At two gatherings, I noticed the older children taking care of the younger. They played with the smaller kids as if they were toys. No parents were pestered.

Children are absolutely adored in Tahiti. Illegitimate children? They have no such phrase in the vocabulary.

Too many babies in your family? Your friend or neighbor will plead for the next one.

And the diapers aren't swished through automatic washers and dryers. Often they're washed down in the stream.

Modern conveniences?

I'm not advocating that we give up our modern conveniences, but I am amazed at how little difference the lack of appliances, etc., makes to the Tahitians.

Life is more simple; but they are happier. And I doubt if Mrs. Tahiti is bored or has become an alcoholic.

Mr. Tahiti or Mr. Bora Bora are real "do-it-yourself" men. There are no plumbers to call.

No, I don't think that we should live like these wonderful people. But I am learning something from them—and hope I can retain it.

MRS. ROSS. Mainwaring (seated) of Orinda and Mayten Branch distributes tickets for the Children's Hospital of the East Bay-Polack Bros. Circus to (left to right) Mrs. William Johnston of Lafayette and Heather Branch; Mrs. Ralph Macduff of Lafayette and Cypress Branch; and Mrs. J. W. Purvis Jr. of Orinda and Birch Branch. The hospital-sponsored event will be held at the Oakland Auditorium July 7, 8 and 9. Funds earned, over and above basic circus expenses, will benefit the part-pay program at Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

First Social at New Club-

A formal champagne reception and dinner dance was held recently at the new Round Hill Country Club, in Alamo.

The affair was of particular significance, since it was the first event to be held in the clubhouse, just completed, and served as a dedication to the facility.

The formal reception and dinner dance started at 8 p.m., which followed a special press preview of the clubhouse, swimming pool and other recreational facilities.

Approximately 300 members attended the official opening of the clubhouse including the original sponsors of the country club and surrounding development: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Dwilla, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spagnoli, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Geldermann and Mr. and Mrs. John Sparrowk.

The special program was planned by the committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hauer, Lafayette, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Williams, Piedmont; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markstein, Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marks, Lafayette; and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. "Buck" Johnson, Walnut Creek.

The landscaping, including many 15 ft. to 50 ft. trees, and appropriate ornamental blooming shrubs and ground cover, has been handled by John Voagley. The clubhouse was designed by William F. Cody, internationally known architect. The interior design and decoration was done by Walter Harada, of Harada & Meu.

Recently, in anticipation of official formation of the club when the clubhouse was completed, a new board of directors was elected. Those now serving are A. J. "Buck" Johnson, president; Richard Hauer, vice-president; Ralph Coffey, treasurer; Harlan Geldermann, John Sparrowk, John Osmondsen and Don Dormer.

Ray McCoy is resident manager and Norman Tauscher, P.G.A., is pro for the club.

The 18-hole golf course was designed by Lawrence Hughes, course architect, who has designed many other golf courses, including Thunderbird and El Dorado in the Palm Springs area. Construction was under the direct supervision of his brother, Frank Hughes.

The course lends itself to championship tournaments and yet is not too difficult for high handicap players, and is ideally situated among the hills of San Ramon Valley, Just one mile east of Alamo on Stone Valley Road. A limited number of priprietary memberships are still available.

A Luau for Omega Nus

Alpha Lambda of Omega Nu held their last social event of the year, a Hawaiian luau, June 3.

The Pleasant Hill home and garden of the chapter president, Mrs. Ted Matthiesen, was the setting.

The outdoor luau feast served to 38 members and husbands was held to honor the newly initiated sorority members and their husbands.

Mrs. John Urmson of Orinda was social chairman in charge of the highly successful party.

Honored guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hill, Mr. and Mrs. John Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. John Steel of Walnut Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Van Woerkom of Concord.

Other honored guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Slater of Concord. Mrs. Slater, the sorority grand president, heard Mrs. Matthiesen's report that the Walnut Creek chapter will have donated over $2000 to local charities by the end of this term.

One of the fund raising activities of this group was a bridge luncheon held at Mike Lynn's Restaurant in Orinda May 26.

Mrs. Clyde Behr of Walnut Creek, chairman of the luncheon, reported that $250 will be presented to juvenile hall to add to the scholarship fund recently set up by this group.

Mrs. Robert Whalen, charity chairman, has announced the chapter is again sending a local handicapped boy to the Easter Seal Camp in the Santa Cruz mountains this summer.

The last chapter meeting of the term was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Briggs of Pleasant Hill, June 7.

At that time Mrs. Matthiesen installed the newly elected officers and turned over the president's gavel to Mrs. Harland Copsey of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Glenn Heltne (Margo McMahon) of Lafayette...University of California, Chi Omega, Alder Branch of Children's Hospital.

Mrs. Alan Lippencott (Lois Ann Blemer) of Concord . . . Anna Head's, Stanford University.

Mrs. Robert Livermore (Jean Everett) of San Ramon . . . University of California, Pi Beta Phi, president of San Ramon Republican Women's Club, associate member of Mary Doyle Unit, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Tioga Guild of John Muir Hospital.

Mrs. Harvey Lowthian, Jr. (Judy Dunn) of Lafayette . . . Delta Gamma Alumnae, Berkeley Clinic, Planned Parenthood, Spinsters and Dames.

Mrs. Franklin H. Watson II (Marilyn Crawford) of Orinda . . . Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae, Jr. Center Guild, Alta Bates Hospital Volunteer, Orinda Nursery School, Young People's Symphony.

Mrs. Bruce N. Wilson (Mary Louise Stephenson) of Orinda . . . University of California, Delta Gamma, Guide Dogs for the Blind.

Installed at the annual luncheon was the league's new president, Mrs. William R. Channell of Lafayette who has served on the Community Welfare Council, Junior Center, Contra Costa Volunteer Bureau, Oakland Volunteer Bureau, Contra Costa Mental Health Coordinating Council, United Crusade chairman and Lafayette Citizens Education Committee.

More localites installed to serve on the new board with Mrs. Channell were Mrs. Robert W. Angell of Lafayette who will be administrative vice-president and director Mrs. Bruce Howard of Orinda.

The annual report by retiring president, Mrs. John Loper, disclosed contributions from the Community Trust Fund the past year have totaled over $14,000 with the major recipients being the Junior Center Art and Science and the Mobile Unit, the Children's Opera Hour, the Contra Costa Volunteer Bureau, KQED Membership and the Aid to Needy Children Research Survey.

Lafayette Women Install New Leaders

The Lafayette Women's Club held its annual installation and tea program June 6 at the Veterans' Memorial Building on Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

New officers installed for the ensuing term were: Mrs. B. D. Blackwood, president; Mrs. Charles E. Grant, first vice-president; Mrs. R. W. McNairy, second vice-president; Mrs. Ernest A. Heckler, recording secretary; Mrs. Ray A. Farley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mervyn E. Wall, treasurer; and Mrs. A. C. Hammon, auditor.

Installation rites were conducted for the new staff with Mrs. T. J. Clark and Mrs. Earl Plescia, past presidents of the club, officiating.

Following the seating of officers, the members were entertained by a fashion show with Acalanes High School sewing class students as models and their teacher, Mrs. Shirley Frazier as narrator.

Mrs. B. D. Blackwood, the newly installed president, stated that even though the club activities will be curtailed during the summer months, the board will continue to meet once a month during June, July and August; the first meeting to be held June 26, at which time she will announce her chairmen for the ensuing term.

Mrs. J. V. Shahbazian, president of the Mt. Diablo District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs; Linda Cump, Acalanes student sponsored by the club in a national sewing contest and who became national winner at a recent judging in New York; and Linda's mother, Mrs. Charles L. Cump, were guests of Mrs. Donn Court, the outgoing president of the club.

The Sportsmen

It's the Same Old Story; The Fishing Is No Good

By LARRY JACKSON

We know you don't wanna hear the same old "crud" about the fishing clans—but you're gonna. Scratched until our eyeballs turned red searching for more favorable news, but just plain out of luck.

A combination of wind and minus tides seemed to keep the fishing down to a minimum. At McAvoy's Harbor the wind kept all but a few private craft at dockside with takes of fish not even worth the casual mention. Some "cats" taken in the adjoining sloughs and some keeper stripers.

White's Fishing Resort had good crowds, but the fishing was way off in the "take" department. A few keepers during the week with a smattering of flounder. Eddie Lockhart at the landing made a trip to a new spot he is raving about at Lake Berryessa. Take the road to Vacaville—cut off in the city to Bragg Canyon, then on, and watch for the sign Lazy J. Ranch. Eddie found the fishing excellent not only on bass, but the new catfish the Eff N' Gee Dept. has placed in the lake. They are called African Cats—a neat brown fish with a light yellow belly and spot markings.

Eddie says they will remind the Mid-Westerners of the channel cats, only they put up much more of a fight and for the eating—rate tops. We gotta look into this sport shortly.

Dowrelio's Landing showed good results with the trollers during the week and only fair fishing for the bait "hounds." Saturday and Sunday saw the sport drop off to almost nothing. Both days were the lowest tides of the week—so—could be the fish want more water to swim in. Fair crowds were out and they tried, that's for sure.

CLUB CORNER—The Walnut Creek Sportsmens Club held its regular meeting on the 13th with a fine dinner meeting and entertainment program. The club has several activities lined up for the month with a dance tomorrow night and the election of officers on the 27th. The installation of officers will take place on July 11.

The Ike Walton League will hold their June meeting on the 22nd at the W.C. PG&E building. To date no speaker has been appointed, but one or more certainly will be there to add spirit to the meeting.

We have had no ruling yet on the controversial A.B. 1887, but have had a rumble that the bill is being held close until more of the alerted legislators are looking out the "window."

Let's hope this doesn't happen. Notes out of Sacto state that a bill is being readied for presentation to do away with the F&G Commission and place the department directly under the legislature.

Hooray!!

Been campaigning for this to happen for many years. Note also states that the Davis Bill has been withdrawn which would take the appointment of the EFF N'GEE head man out of the governor's hands and place it up for vote in the legislature.

In our personal opinion, those now in charge of administration in all departments of the department are more than capable—let them alone while they do a good job. Sportsmen have had enough of the hassle and squabble for some time now.

The commission has been the main fault—get rid of them.

SPORTS CAR TIDBITS—We may seem a bit out of our element here, but the news relates to our localities, so here goes. Had a very enlightening talk with Frank Dinsmore, local Lotus Sports Car dealer and race fan.

Frank sponsored a team of local drivers for participation in the Laguna Seca Road Races at Monterey last weekend. The group returned with high honors, as they placed in several of the class events with one win, two placements, two thirds and one fourth.

The participating drivers were Dinsmore, Joe Paulson, J. H. Brown, Dwayne Wright and Charles Foye.

A neat record for the local clan and as the talk progressed a grand time was had by all.

Free Bowling Clinic for Boys, Girls

The Walnut Bowl, located at 1595 Botelho Drive, Walnut Creek, is sponsoring a free bowling clinic for all boys and girls from ages 8 through 16.

The clinic will be held each afternoon, Monday through Friday of next week.

The clinic which will start at 1:30 p.m. and last until 4 p.m., is basically designed to teach the children all phases of the game including safety, courtesy, stance, approach, delivery and scoring.

Special light weight balls will be available for the younger bowlers.

Certified resident instructors of the American Junior Bowling Congress will be in charge of the clinic.

Chief instructor will be Vance Haswell, general manager of the Walnut Bowl. Assisting him will be Wally Krohn.

All equipment will be furnished including bowling shoes at no cost to the children.

Local Teams Face NBC Elimination

It's 'Do or Die' Sunday For Merchants and PH

The Walnut Creek Merchants and Pleasant Hill both suffered decisive defeats last Sunday in the National Baseball Congress Divisional Elimination Tournament.

This Sunday it's do or die for the two local teams. A second loss would eliminate the two teams from the divisional tournaments, which end one week from Sunday.

The winner of these tournaments will go to the State NBC Tournament in San Rafael starting June 30. The state NBC champion then represents California in the national tournament at Wichita in August.

Sunday the Merchants will face Jackson-Goldie at Civic Field in Walnut Creek at 1:30 p.m.

At Diablo Valley College, Pleasant Hill takes on the Mill Valley Merchants at 2 p.m.

THE LOSERS of these games are eliminated from further tournament play.

The winners Sunday will then go into the final round of play June 25.

At Walnut Creek, the 88-cent Stores automatically drew a bye following two wins and at DVC the San Francisco Longshoremen have a bye after their two wins.

Sunday's winners will be forced to win a doubleheader from their opponents to win the divisional tournament.

If 88-cent Stores or the Longshoremen win the first game on June 25, there will be no need for a second game.

Last Sunday the Merchants took it on the chin from the 88-cent Stores, 12-4.

At DVC, Pleasant Hill was decisioned by the Longshoremen, 8-2.

The previous week, the Merchants had blasted the San Francisco Misracks, 15-2, and Pleasant Hill had dumped Mill Valley, 7-5.

THIS SUNDAY it will be a rematch at Diablo Valley College between Mill Valley and Pleasant Hill.

The Merchants fell behind, 2-0, in the first inning and never were able to catch up.

The Walnut Creek team got one run back in the second on catcher Jim Maggart's single and shortstop Vern Kinley's run-scoring double.

After the 88-cent Stores scored two more in the third, leftfielder Terry Sieberlich hit a tremendous solo home run to right field to make the score 4-2.

This was as close at the Merchants could get.

In the fifth, the 88-cent Stores scored three times, aided by two errors, and then in the sixth they wrapped up the game when second baseman Ernie White hit a grand slam home run.

The Merchants closed the scoring with two runs in the eighth on a single by Joe McElroy, a triple by Jim Franks and a sacrifice fly by Don Hopkins.

PLEASANT HILL got off to a 1-0 first-inning lead at DVC, but two runs by the Longshoremen in the second inning quickly erased the early lead.

After the second inning, Pleasant Hill was through.

The Longshoremen picked up three more runs in the fourth, two in the fifth and one in the sixth.

Pleasant Hill scored its final tourneys being played at five different East Bay fields, five teams have been eliminated so far.

Five more will be eliminated this Sunday.

In Group 5 at DVC, the Crockett Recs have been eliminated.

In Group 4 at Walnut Creek, the San Francisco Misracks were eliminated.

The final champion of each group will move into the state NBC tournament and a chance at the $1000 prize money which goes to the state champ.

Maurice Hamilton limited the Pleasant Hill team to six hits while the Longshoremen were belting out 12 safeties.

Catcher Matt Kellum-Rose of the Longshoremen hit two homers in the game.

HIS FIRST came in the second inning with one on.

His second of the game was in the fifth with the bases empty.

Ben Renniker took the loss for Pleasant Hill. Despite the 12 hits, he went the distance.

Aquabears Breeze Thru Swim Meet

The Aquabears Swim Club coached by Laurabelle Bookstaver walked off with most of the honors at the Tamalpais Open Swimming Meet at Mill Valley last weekend.

The neophyte team won its first high-point trophy with a score of 348 points.

Second place went to the San Leandro Beavers with 140 points.

The club's 15 and 16 year old 400 yard medley relay team of Larry Flick, Garrett Wittkopp, Charles Shillinski and Dick Jacobberger set a national AAU and Pacific Association record for their age group.

The team's time was 4:06.2.

The boys' 13 and 14, 200 yard medley relay team also set a record in the two day meet.

John Fabris, Bob Schwiers, Bob Kammeyer and Wittkopp splashed to a new AAU and PA record with a time of 1:54.3.

A THIRD relay record was set by the girls' 10 and under 200 yard medley relay team of Cindy Egli, Susie Schnugg, Peggy Hart and Scampy Hickox, all of Orinda.

Jacobberger took the high point trophies for 15 and 16 year old boys in the meet. He set a national record in the 200 yard freestyle with a time of 1:54.6. He also tied the national mark of 50.8 for the 100 yard freestyle.

Pat Schwiers took top honors for 11 and 12 year old girls.

Peter Schnugg was the high point champion for boys 10 and under.

Schnugg had a first in the 50 yd. backstroke, two seconds, a third and a sixth for the two day meet.

SUSIE BARKLEY took three firsts for girls 15 and 16. She won the 200 yard freestyle, 100 yard backstroke and 200 yd. individual medley.

Peggy Hart finished first in the 50 yard breaststroke for girls 10 and under. She also had four second places finishes.

Round Hill Country Club Officially Dedicated

Civic leaders, city and county officials and the press joined the developers and directors of the Round Hill Country Club, in Alamo, last Thursday to preview the newly completed clubhouse and other recreational facilities in advance of its official opening.

Members of the club dedicated the completed facility Saturday, with a gala champagne reception and formal dinner dance.

The 18-hole championship course has been playable since last November, and now with the clubhouse and swimming pool completed and ready for use, the members will officially open one of the most modern facilities of its kind in the country.

Designed by William F. Cody, internationally known architect, the clubhouse, junior olympic-type swimming pool and other recreational facilities are located on a knoll, overlooking a picturesque lake, and lush, green fairways.

Cody has designed the building and facilities for many well known clubs.

A reflection pond and huge stone fireplace are but a few of the luxuries in the fully carpeted bar, lounge and dining area. The dining room has two verandas, one overlooking the lake and swimming pool, and the other with a picture-window view of the fairways.

THE OUTDOOR recreation area provides for a snack bar and poolside dressing areas, a separate wading pool for children, a nearby putting green and a large size practice fairway. A large and completely modern pro shop is located in the building, and a storage facility for 50 electric carts is adjacent to the first and tenth tees, but a short distance from the clubhouse.

The locker rooms, also fully carpeted, are furnished with wood panel lockers and a sundeck. A fully equipped steam room has also been provided for use by the members.

Interior design and decoration of the clubhouse was done by Walter Harada, of Harada & Meu, who have been acclaimed for their interiors in the Peacock Gap Country Club in Marin, and Alfreds and Yamago Restaurants in San Francisco.

The landscaping, including many 15 ft. to 50 ft. trees and appropriate ornamental blooming shrubs and ground cover, has been beautifully handled by John Voagley, who also did the fabulous El Dorado Club in Palm Springs.

The course was designed by Lawrence Hughes, eminent course architect, who has designed many other outstanding golf courses, including Thunderbird and El Dorado in the Palm Springs area.

THE COURSE lends itself to championship tournaments and yet is not too difficult for high handicap players.

It is ideally situated among the scenic and gentle rolling hills of beautiful San Ramon Valley just one mile east of Alamo on Stone Valley Road.

Recently, in anticipation of official formation of the club when the clubhouse was completed, a new board of directors was elected. Those now serving are A. J. "Buck" Johnson, president; Richard Hauer, vice-president; Ralph Coffey, treasurer; Harlan Geldermann, John Sparrowk, John Osmundsen and Don Dormer.

Ray McCoy is resident manager and Norman Tauscher, P.G.A., is pro for the club.

Pat Murphey, director of athletics at Clayton Valley High School, will serve as swim coach and lifeguard during the summer months.

Garcia Takes Honors at DCC

The various flights champions at Diablo Country Club were announced this week.

In the top flight, Bob Garcia defeated Art Brown, 3 and 2 to take the championship.

In the 2nd flight, it was Lou Schrepel over Jim Hague, 4 and 3.

In the fourth flight it was Jim Bos downing John Russell, 7 and 5.

The fifth flight found Jim Miller edging Forest Knight, 1 up.

Lloyd Rossi is the Diablo Club champion.

Mrs. Adams Wins Tilden Tourney

Mrs. W. B. Adams of Orinda was the winner of the Putts Tournament at the Tilden Park Women's Sweeps and Putts Tournament last week.

She used 31 putts and finished in a three-way tie for top honors in the Class B division

Mrs. V. J. Eckles of Lafayette shot a 111-34-77 to tie with Mrs. Adams and Mrs. H. Reed of Oakland for first place.

Grand Jury Probation Committee Reports

Recommendations of the Grand Jury Probation Committee submitted in their report for the fiscal year include six points.

The committee recommends completion of the Boys Center at Byron. The present facilities accommodate 21 boys and the center is planned to take care of 60 boys.

The report states the need for an institutional treatment facility for girls was felt more strongly during the past year. The committee, under the chairmanship of Burns Campbell believes such a facility could be considerably smaller than the Boys Center.

A RECOMMENDATION that planning for such a facility should be started immediately with location of it at the Juvenile Hall.

Because of the need for more foster homes, the committee recommends that the meetings cosponsored by the Probation Department, Social Welfare Department and the Central Contra Costa Council of Churches be continued.

These meetings, according to the report, are held to encourage persons to become foster parents. This program will eventually eliminate the care of neglected children at Juvenile Hall, the committee said.

THE COMMITTEE recommends that a Homemaker Service be promoted. Also recommended in the report is the continuation of the Nalline program which started in 1959 because of its aid to the control of narcotic addiction.

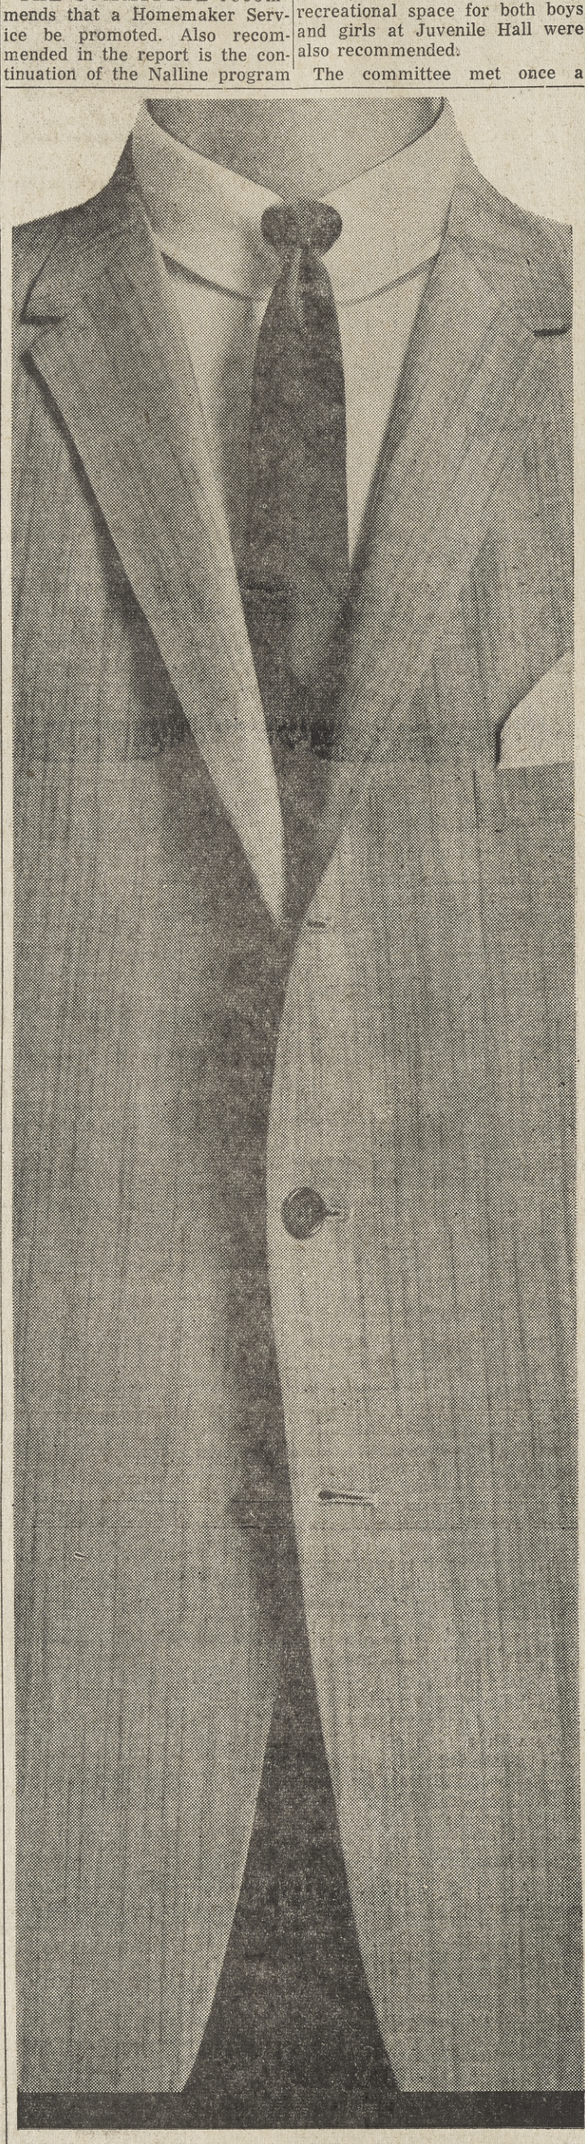
Additional classrooms plus more recreational space for both boys and girls at Juvenile Hall were also recommended.

The committee met once a month during the fiscal year with John Davis, county probation officer and D. V. Morrison, assistant county probation officer.

The meetings included a study of general probation department activities with emphasis on Juvenile Hall activities; a study of Adult Division activities; observation of Juvenile Courts in Richmond and Martinez; visits to Juvenile Hall and Psychological Clinic, Boys' Rehabilitation Center at Byron and other similar centers in different counties.

THE COMMITTEE stated in the report that the goals set up in the Probation Department on a county and state level are being achieved under the direction of John Davis.

Members of the Grand Jury Probation Committee in addition to the chairman are Mary Gianotti, Imogene Showers and Dolores Ricks.



New Tau Nu President Takes Gavel

Driver Caution Is Urged As Kids Begin Vacations

"Have kids, will travel!"

As California school close for the summer, Robert McCarthy state dire tor of motor vehicles, says there will be over three and a half million kids in and about millions of California's motor cars as they take off on the highways for the holidays and vacations.

"The youngsters feeling their vacation oats can make distracting passengers and tour directors for parents, relatives and friendly hosts driving them about or the innumerable vacation pursuits available in the Golden State," the director declared.

He admitted he is mindful of his own responsibility in driving his 10 children about on holiday chores from time to time.

Equally important is an alert to watch for kids as pedestrians—playing close to the street, sometimes all too forgetful about the hazard of running into the street. Watch out for kidestrians, he reminds.

"California motorists, parental and otherwise, can save lives and help make the good old summertime really memorable by a valiant and effective effort to keep accidents out of the picture.

"Let's keep 'em playing all summer long—with no casualties caused by lapses from the safety standard in our driving.

This means cutting down on the speed factor and stepping up the warning signal alerts for turning, slowing and stopping.

New Law To Help School Districts Repay Loans

A measure to assist school districts in the repayment of state loans for school sites and construction has been signed into law by Governor Edmund G. Brown.

Assemblyman John T. Knox, Richmond Democrat, introduced the measure, Assembly Bill 1050, at the request of the Department of Finance.

As an emergency measure it will take effect immediately.

Under the bill, a school district can combine repayment of apportionments for site and construction if the aid received for construction is for a school at a grade level different from that indicated in the site loan.

At present, repayment of the two apportionments cannot be combined.

Combining apportionments will help a school district because site apportionments must be repaid in full but construction loans do not have to be.

Because of unification or other district organization, it often is desirable to use a building site for a grade level other than originally intended.

IF YOU'RE KEEPING YOUR MONEY IN A SOCK
and accumulating mold instead of income tax deductions, this is for you. Here is a perfect 2-sided money-making opportunity. 13,500 sq. ft. of land with a well built 3-bedroom, 1½-bath house on it. THERE IS A GOOD POSSIBILITY OF COMMERCIAL ZONING HERE, and everyone knows how much money can be made when zoning changes. The other way to make money is to rent it while waiting for the zoning, or to live in it, as it should work out rent free on resale, plus of course the profit. If you've watched others making money in land, and waited for just the right buy to come along, this is it. The place is right, the time is right, the opportunity right. So get those savings out of the sock and put it to work for you.

Opening Day Impressive; New Team Opening Soon

By HEC HANCOCK

As in the past, the opening day ceremonies of the Walnut Creek Junior Baseball Leagues, were impressive.

The colorful array of baseball teams on the field comprising nearly 600 youngsters, the stands filled with enthusiastic parents, the sparkling green of Civic Field are the ingredients of an unforgettable picture.

It is particularly pleasing when, after several years of such festivities, you can recall the progress of a particular youngster or youngsters through the beginning stages, his first uniform, and finally as he graduates to a full size diamond—from eager, dirty-faced kids with ball gloves in their hands to young men.

The local baseball program covers an age span ranging from the nine-year-old through high school.

Normally, the young baseball player can spend six or seven years in the local baseball wars.

HOWEVER, once the youngster graduates from high school and goes on to college or goes to work, what happens to him?

Is he to be dropped, forgotten completely? While it is true that as the youngsters enter college, only the most enthusiastic continue their playing interest in baseball, there remains a goodly number eager to play.

A team is presently being established that will be comprised of recent high school graduates and college freshmen.

Sponsored by Sports & Games, Inc., of Walnut Creek, the team will be coached by Mel Alamano, local scout for the S.F. Giants, and Red Gillham, long active in baseball.

The team thus far consists of 11 players.

Picked thus far: Bob Morris, Univ. of Calif., formerly Las Lomas; Bob Lang, San Jose State, formerly San Ramon; Tom Strain, Acalanes; Bob Gillham, Acalanes; Stew Fox, Acalanes; Denny Toll, Acalanes; Tom Alamano, Las Lomas; Hal Stephenson, Las Lomas; Bill Remy, Las Lomas; Rene Brandol, Las Lomas; and Roger Guichard, St. Joseph's, all league catcher C.A.L., a resident of Walnut Creek.

Two players are to be added at a later date.

A schedule has almost been completed consisting of Connie Mack, American Legion, and leading semi-pro teams from throughout the Bay Area.

HOME GAMES will be played at Civic Field, Saturdays and Sundays, normal starting time, 11 a.m.

A practice game has been slated for Memorial Day, the opening game is set for June 4, Civic Field at 1 p.m., with Sports and Games playing the Teamsters of Oakland, a Connie Mack team.

Alamano reported the team had received a big assist from Ed Montague, head Giant scout, who has donated a set of uniforms for practice.

A game in the near future has been set up with the Giants, a team of Connie Mack age sponsored by the S.F. Giants for the San Francisco area.

The average age of the team will be approximately 18.

The players all started baseball in the local junior baseball program, and will be excellent representatives of the area as they in their wake, will be a fairly representative number of baseball scouts, as several of the group are known to have aroused considerable interest among the play for pay group.

A semi-pro club, sponsored by the Walnut Creek Merchants, and managed by Joe McElroy, made its debut last year and enjoyed great success. The Merchants will start its season June 1.

Civic Field is going to be humming with great baseball this summer!

THE FIRST graduates of the Junior Leagues to return in a coaching capacity, are Harold Stephenson and Tom Alamano.

These two have teamed up as co-managers of the Optimist Braves in the Western League.

Both were outstanding on the Las Lomas baseball team this spring.

This marks what could well develop into a trend for the future in the baseball program.

They easily are as well versed in baseball as any of the present adult coaches.

It will be of the greatest interest to see what the outcome will be as they take on their senior competitors.

Regardless of the outcome, it's a cinch their team will be a hustling, running, hard playing aggregation.

Personally, I wish them the best of luck. I'm sure they'll set an excellent example, and show the way for more high school youngsters to take on coaching chores.

travel throughout the Bay Area this summer.

Mrs. Slingsby Is Soroptimists' New President

Mrs. Phyllis Slingsby was installed as president of the Walnut Creek Soroptimist Club yesterday at 7:30 p.m. at Kellogs Steak House, Walnut Creek.

Her officers are Mesdames Gladys Brown, vice president; Hazel Snedden, recording secretary; Joan Mendes, corresponding secretary; Gladys Richmond, treasurer; Betsy FitzGerald Rahn, director; Ruth Pellett, delegate; Bea Rowe, alternate delegate.

Installing officers were Mrs. Mildred Myers, secretary of the Southwest Region of the Soroptimist International Association.

Bookmaking Charge Lodged On WC Man

Harold G. Bell, 34, of 1665 Springbrook Road, Walnut Creek, has been charged with bookmaking and is free on $1050 bail, after arraignment at Alameda County Superior Court.

Also arrested on the same charge was Evelyn Calmerin, 52, who allegedly was in an apartment accepting bets.

Officers said they became suspicious because Bell, although only a warehousman at DeSoto Chemical Coatings, Berkeley, received more phone calls than anyone else.

State Bureau Approves Milk Price Discounts

Price reductions of four cents per gallon for milk at retail stores became effective this week throughout Alameda and Contra Costa counties under a new order of the California Bureau of Milk Stabilization.

For the first time, store customers who purchase two or more half-gallon cartons of milk may be given quantity discounts of two cents off the regular half-gallon prices, amounting to savings of four cents per gallon.

Family savings of over one-half million dollars annually now are possible in these two counties.

Granting of quantity discounts to Alameda and Contra Costa retail stores' customers sets a new precedent for California milk price structures.

Issued by L. C. Schafer, acting chief of bureau, the new order's price savings for quantity milk purchases of a gallon or more were justified by a series of cost studies made by the bureau early this year.

These studies showed that it costs less for retail stores to sell milk to customers who purchase two or more half-gallon cartons at one time.

SIMILAR price discounts for Napa, Sonoma and Lake counties were proposed by Safeway representatives at a hearing Wednesday in Santa Rosa for the Redwood Milk Marketing area which also includes portions of Mendocino and Solano counties.

The Bureau's latest monthly report of milk sales for Alameda and Contra Costa counties indicated that in these two counties alone more than 2¼ million gallons of fluid milk is purchased monthly for family household consumption.

Over half this milk is bought at stores.

Under this new pricing precedent, savings by Alameda and Contra Costa consumers could reach more than $50,000 per month through milk purchases from retail stores at the new quantity discount prices.

Ray B. Bush, manager of the milk department of Safeway Stores, Incorporated, hailed the quantity discount as a welcome saving for large families.

Decisions have not yet been handed down by the bureau on proposals for quantity discounts in Los Angeles, San Bernardino-Riverside, San Francisco and Redwood marketing areas.

Five Receive UC Degrees Tonight

Five local residents received bachelor's degrees from the University of California at Davis last Friday.

Those graduated are James Stanley Baker of Danville, veterinary science; Carolyn Esther Raynor, Danville, biological sciences; Edith Nadine Noecker, Diablo, art; Marcia Jane Barry, Walnut Creek, political science; Bruce David McBride, Walnut Creek, agricultural economics.

Molina Will Enter World Of Spanish

Hubert Molina of Walnut Creek will participate in the 1961-62 program for improvement of language instruction in public schools, beginning this fall at the University of New Mexico.

Molina and his wife will leave for Albuquerque and will remain at the university for a year.

Molina will follow an intensive course of study in the basic general linguistic theory, phonetics and the structure of the Spanish language, Hispanic civilization, Spanish and Spanish-American literature, and the audio-lingual techniques of language instruction.

He will do practice teaching at one of the Albuquerque high schools, eat most of his meals at a special Spanish table at the New Mexico Union where only Spanish is spoken, and attend numerous lectures in Spanish.

Educators, Reservists to U.S. Air Force Academy

The United States Air Force Academy, once called the "Taj Mahal of America," recently was host to a group of Contra Costa educators and Air Force Reservists.

The trip, highlighted by a late Rocky Mountain type blizzard, served to effectively present the Academy mission.

Making the trip that departed from Hamilton AFB were Alex Winchester, Acalanes High School; Mario Menessini, College Park High School; Dave Sweetman, Las Lomas High School; Bruce Handley, Del Valle High

MAJOR William Tuggle, Walnut Creek; Lt. Col. Rocky Rogers, Walnut Creek; Capt. R. Hamilton, Walnut Creek; Capt. Carol T. Coffey, Orinda; Capt. Hec Hancock, Walnut Creek; Jerry Bassett, Pittsburg, and Gordon McNulty, Lafayette.

Red carpet treatment was afforded the group, and an extensive tour of the entire academy was directed by Capt. Robert Koernig of the Protocol Division of the Registrar's Office.

Tall Bearded Iris Make Irrestible Garden Flags

Some people still call it common garden iris. But there's nothing at all common about the tall beared beauty of today's nursery trade. It is, instead, an irresistible flag, waving tall and stately in the mid-spring sun. Aristocratic, yes, but never common.

Today's tall bearded iris is another product of the hybridist's art. Like the modern rose, it seems capable of reproducing itself into an infinite succession of lovely new varieties. And like the rose, it boasts a following of devotees who greet each year's new crop with undisguised enthusiasm.

FOR ALL the refinement, however, tall bearded iris still retains its simple tastes in life. Few garden plants are less demanding as to soil nor more indifferent to water. Feeding should be light, if at all, and division of the clumps every three or four years is often enough. Add this up and you come out with an easy-to-care-for plant every time.

If you check with a member of the California Association of Nurserymen this month, you'll find him well-stocked with tall bearded iris rhizomes, all named varieties which can be identified by reference to your nurseryman's color chart.

It is well to remember that the newer varieties are scarcer and therefore more expensive. The fact that a particular variety is cheaper doesn't necessarily mean its any less desirable.

These Roads Will Be Resurfaced

Some four miles of road within the Walnut Creek city limits will be resurfaced at a cost of about $27,000, it was announced.

More than a mile of this will be in the Larkey area, and the Lakewood area will get more than half a mile of resurfacing.

Larkey resurfacing includes San Juan Avenue, 1454 feet; Alvarado Avenue, 1954; Encinal Avenue, 940; San Luis Road, 1665.

In Lakewood: Lakewood Circle 2810 feet; La Vista Road, 1112.

Others: Summit Road, 637 feet; Summit Circle, 343; Mariposa Way, 420; Hacienda Drive, 2242; Walker Avenue, 997; Arroyo Way, 1228; Parkside Drive, 2649; Overlook Drive, 1252; Barkley Avenue, 330; Casa Way, 940.

Bids will be awarded for the jobs to a single contractor on June 21, and the work should begin about July 1.

It will take one to two weeks.

Susan Scott Celebrates Birthday

Susan was born prematurely at six months at Kaiser Hospital. She weighed two pounds and three ounces. Then she slid back to 27 ounces.

She spent two and one-half months at Children's Hospital before she gained the five pounds necessary in order to come home.

SUSAN, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scott of Forest Lane, is now 26 inches tall and weighs about 16 pounds.

Muir Hospital Groups Top $15,000 Effort

In just half the expected time, the Women's Auxiliary to John Muir Memorial Hospital has topped its 36-month fund-raising goal of $15,000 to endow the hospital nursery, and already is considering another pledge.

The goal was surpassed before auxiliary members have decided whether their next pledge shall be aimed at some such specific project as equipping the new nursery, endowing a pediatrics ward, or other department, or a general building fund-raising goal.

THE BALANCE of the $15,000 pledge, plus $100, was presented to Alfred B. Layton of Diablo, finance committee chairman of the hospital board, by Mrs. Harold C. Bates of Moraga, 1961 president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Royal Doty of Walnut Creek, auxiliary treasurer.

Eighteen months ago, when that $15,000 pledge was voted, it certainly seemed optimistic, even over three years," commented Mrs. Bates in announcing the achievement.

The auxiliary, which is two years old this month, in November, 1959, voted its original pledge under leadership of its charter president, Mrs. Charles Hart of Walnut Creek.

The as-yet-unbuilt hospital now has a dozen auxiliary guilds actively supporting it, with more than 350 members from Alamo, Danville, Clayton, Concord, Lafayette, Martinez, Moraga, Orinda, Pacheco, Pleasant Hill, San Ramon, and Walnut Creek.

The $15,100 represents proceeds for a wide variety of hospital benefits, each carefully scheduled well in advance to avoid conflict with other calendared community and social events. In addition to auxiliary projects in which all guilds participate, such as the year-around John Muir Memorial Hospital Thrift Shop in Lafayette, annual autumn "Evening Under the Stars," holiday card sales, and this spring's "Day at the Races" at Golden Gate Fields, individual guilds each present a yearly major fund-raising event, plus smaller benefit functions.

THE AUXILIARY'S third "Evening Under the Stars," with cocktails, "glamour" fashion show, and dancing, is slated for September 16 at the Gordon Ball estate in Danville.

Already on display at hospital headquarters, 1361 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, are cards selected for sale to benefit the hospital for this year's Christmas season. Plans for promoting sale of these holidays cards for individual, family, and business use are now being made.

In addition to their fund-raising work, guild members have compiled studies on nation-wide hospital volunteer in-services, gift shop operation, etc., and assisted when needed at currently maintained hospital headquarters.

MRS. ROYAL Doty of Walnut Creek, John Muir Memorial Hospital Auxiliary treasurer, counts out $100 over the $15,000 nursery endowment pledge the auxiliary has fulfilled in half the alloted time. Left, Mrs. Harold C. Bates of Moraga, auxiliary president, and right, Alfred B. Layton of Diablo, chairman of the finance committee on the hospital board of trustees. Layton, newest member of the hospital board, is former chairman of the Mt. Zion hospital board and retired chairman of Crown Zellerbach Company.
